EX- 105
FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA

Reurairtel and memorandum dated 10/25/59, in captioned matter.

Referenced memorandum discloses that approximately 100 pickets held a demonstration at the United Nations 10/24/59. It was also disclosed that the pickets carried placards praising Fidel Castro and calling for non-intervention in Cuban affairs and beseeching the U. S. to curb Cuban assassins who are terrorizing Cuba from U. S. bases.

In view of unsettled conditions in Cuba and of reports of Cuban intelligence agents operating in U. S., you should conduct appropriate inquiries for the purpose of ascertaining the identities of the leaders of the above-mentioned demonstration and the individuals behind the demonstration. If you determine that such individuals are in this country in an official status, you should conduct no active investigation without prior Bureau clearance. If, however, these individuals are not in this country in an official status, you should conduct appropriate investigation for the purpose of determining their activities and ascertaining if such activities are inimical to the interests of U. S.

Open separate cases on any individuals identified and submit information developed in form suitable for dissemination.

Re: Foreign Political Matters - Cuba

On October 24, 1959, [REDACTED] advised that approximately one hundred pickets held a demonstration at the United Nations, on that date, from about 3:00 p.m. to 4:15 p.m. Placards carried by the pickets praised Fidel Dastro, called for non-intervention in Cuban affairs and beseeched the United States to curb Cuban assassins who are terrorizing Cuba from bases within the United States. The demonstration was orderly and without incident. b2

On October 29, 1959, [redacted] learned that [redacted] in New York City had been told [redacted] (not further identified) of Ottawa, Canada, that [redacted], who also holds the title [redacted] in New York City, had been "nominated" to Canada. [redacted] indicated that he had heard differently, but that as far as he knew [redacted] had not received any orders as yet. b2 b7C

On October 30, 1959, [redacted] learned that [redacted] had been contacted [redacted] (not further identified) of Ottawa, Canada and that [redacted] indicated that the present Cuban Government had decided to assign [redacted] to a diplomatic post in Canada. [redacted] said he had not received any official notification to that effect, but that he previously had a discussion with [redacted] and had told [redacted] he would accept a diplomatic assignment in Canada. [redacted] remarked he hoped to visit Canada in about one week to look over the situation, but he expected it would take him at least two months to clean up his affairs in New York. The informant learned that [redacted] could be contacted at the Cuban Ambassador's office in Canada. b2 b7C

The same informant also learned on October 30, 1959, that [redacted] had been advised by one of his contacts that [redacted] from Vermont, intended to leave on November 2, 1959, on a visit to several South American countries. [redacted] indicated that he agreed with his contact that the Senate Foreign Relations Committee is important and that it would perhaps be beneficial to Cuba if [redacted] became better acquainted with [redacted]. b7C

Twenty Attempts in Nine Months Against FIDEL's Regime

FROM THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
SUGAR PROPRIETORS SENT POISON AND BULLETS TO CUBA

The October 21 strafing of Havana killed 4 and wounded 40 -
The FBI's amazing story - But the agrarian reform will take place in spite of everything.

* * *

"Bullets and poison rained from the sky!" This is how the Havana newspaper "Revolucion," organ of the July 26 Movement of Cuba, led off the blood-curdling story of the air raid - with machine gun strafing, dropping of subversive leaflets and a bomb - which took place on the night of October 21 in Havana, Cuba. It was one airplane and it came directly from the territory of the United States. The report on this attack appeared also in Italian newspapers but, to tell the truth, the matter was dismissed with few words. The fact is that, among other things, the American news agencies which monopolize all information originating in Latin America have vied with each other in "stinginess" of details.

Therefore, we are in debt to the Cuban newspapers for the opportunity to devote some attention not only to the episode of the air aggression on Havana, but, above all, to the general political situation prevailing in this island of Central America. Cuba, in the last few days, has been the victim of a monstrous aggression based upon terrorism and sedition.

The purpose of the attack is: "To overthrow the legitimate government emerging from the victorious revolution against the dictatorship of BATISTA." In simple words, this means that the objective is to block the agrarian reform so that United Fruit and Cuban-American Sugar (the two companies that exploit the agricultural resources of the island almost in their entirety) can go on making enormous profits while 200 thousand Cuban peasants have no land and 500 thousand farmhands are employed only three months in a year and have an income which is much lower than in many regions of Africa (an average of 50 to 60 thousand lire a year).

AN ATROCIOUS EXAMPLE

The October 21 air raid on Havana is one of the many acts of aggression on Cuba originating in the territory of the United States. Perhaps, it is an atrocious example, but, by no means, is it the most dangerous one. The toll of the air raid was four dead and forty wounded. The aggression took place in the late afternoon, when people were streaming into the streets of Havana, coming from their workshops, offices and homes, to enjoy the cool evening breeze. They were out for a walk or a little shopping. Suddenly, the sky was filled with the roar of an airplane descending to lower altitude. The people did not even have time to look up. The machine guns started to rattle while thousands of leaflets bearing the signature [REDACTED] fell on the downtown area of the Cuban capital. b7C

The attack lasted until Cuban pursuit planes took to the air to drive the aggressor back to where he had come from. A few hours after the aggression, word came that the toll was two dead and 42 wounded. Two of the injured persons died in the hospital some time later. Three children are among the injured persons. They are: [REDACTED] 8 years old; [REDACTED] 9 years old; and [REDACTED] 8 years old. b7C

Who are the aggressors? Who is it that sent them? We learned it from a source whose dependability cannot be questioned: The Federal Bureau of Investigation. The United States "federal police" - after the protest that Cuba sent to Washington for the infamous aggressions originating in American territory - undertook, a few days ago, "certain investigations of certain ^{Cuban} refugees in Florida." Florida is only 90 miles from Cuba's coastline. The FBI ascertained that [REDACTED] is responsible for the flights on Cuba and that the airplanes have their "home bases" on Florida soil. Naturally, the United States disclaimed any responsibility for these acts of aggression. However, the "unofficial, off-the-record" explanation for the fact that American soil is being used by the enemies of the Cuban regime to launch their attacks is, to say the least, far-fetched and absurd. We cannot stop - they say - Cuban exiles from taking off in their personal planes from emergency fields and flying in any direction they please. This is like saying that in the United States anyone who has enough money can buy an airplane (or rent it) and load it with bombs to shower destruction and death where he pleases. b7c

CUBA AND GUATEMALA

The truth is quite different. In the United States - as FIDEL CASTRO repeatedly pointed out (on the other hand, it is sufficient to mention the case of Guatemala) - the worst exponents of the overthrown dictatorships of Latin America have found protection, comfort and support. This is so, because in the United States many men live whose wealth has been accumulated by despoiling Cuba, Nicaragua, the Dominican Republic, Venezuela, Argentina, etc.

In Cuba, during the first nine months of a democratic regime, twenty different attempts have been made to restore the old regime. When CASTRO made public his intention to implement an agrarian reform, which was last July, these attempts multiplied as if by magic. As a matter of fact, CASTRO, in late July, had to "liquidate" President URRUTIA who had openly taken action to sabotage the land distribution to the poor peasants.

* * *

"The agrarian reform will take place. Cuba is not Guatemala," the Cuban Government, the Labor Confederation and all the parties of the United National Front have repeatedly stated. Among the parties of its national united front, Cuba counts on a Popular Socialist Party which is the most democratic and most advanced political organization in Cuba.

We had the opportunity to hear the above words from the lips of the Cuban patriots that visited our editorial office in the last few days to bring us copies of the "Revolucion" edition denouncing the air aggression. They added: "Cuba needs, however, that the struggle of its seven million citizens against a handful of Cuban and American landed proprietors and financiers be known, appreciated and defended throughout the world."

[REDACTED]

It is noted [REDACTED] was previously interviewed by your office 8/27/59 and furnished details of his experiences in Cuba which were incorporated in letterhead memorandum by your office and disseminated by Bureau to other interested agencies. However, two items mentioned by [REDACTED] in his WABC interview were not referred to by him in his 8/27/59 interview by your office. In broadcast, [REDACTED] stated he had information for story which would show why an unidentified American was recently murdered in Havana after being involved in some type of financial deal with Fidel Castro. [REDACTED] made no mention of this episode in his interview by your office. Moreover, in broadcast, [REDACTED] indicated he had talked with persons who had been with Castro in Mexico during his exile there, and that such persons inferred Castro and his followers committed murder after murder in Mexico with approval [REDACTED] (possibly referring to [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] who has been an avid supporter of Castro).

Promptly reinterview [REDACTED] and obtain full details concerning two specific items noted above. Furnish results in form suitable for dissemination, if [REDACTED] supplies any pertinent information regarding this matter.

ESCAPE FROM CUBA

WABC - 6:30 p.m. - 6:45 p.m.

Interview with [REDACTED] b7C

Because of recent events in Cuba I have removed from our files an interview which was recorded late in the month of August of this year. The interview is with [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED] had just returned from Havana. He was one of a group of civilians who had been held prisoner for a period of more than a week by the CASTRO Government. Only small portions of the interview were used at that time. Now because of the developments in Cuba in the past couple of days, in retrospect much of what [REDACTED] had to say two months ago takes on added interest. Here is that interview. b7C

Interviewer: [REDACTED] you recently returned from Havana after being held 9 days by CASTRO's Government forces. Why were you incarcerated in the first place? b7C [REDACTED] Well, no reason was given except for the fact that anyone who walked into [REDACTED] house about the ninth of August had to be held.

Interviewer: Well, first why did you go to Havana?

[REDACTED] I went to Havana because I had learned through tips that a counterrevolution was brewing and that [REDACTED] b7C was the leader of it and I had talked to a person in Miami who was a friend [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] had sent word for me to come over so that I could photograph it and do news reports.

b7C

Interviewer: In our ensuing talk I know the name of [REDACTED] is going to come up quite often. Who is [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]: [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] who served in Japan but most of his military service was spent in jail. [REDACTED], in 1958 after running guns into Cuba to CASTRO forces, joined with [REDACTED] in opening up the second front of Escambray. [REDACTED] trained the troops in Escambray and he and [REDACTED] actually were the ones to spring FIDEL CASTRO's forces loose so that they defeated BATISTA. It is not well known but for several days FIDEL CASTRO sent [REDACTED] with an Army to fight [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] when [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] began their activities in Escambray. Later they joined together and BATISTA was defeated.

b7C

Interviewer: Just what is your direct connection with [REDACTED] Why would he send for you?

[REDACTED] I know a friend of his who had arranged with [REDACTED] to actually do work with the Cuban exiles to overthrow the CASTRO forces. A friend of mine put me in with his friend telling him that I would like to take motion pictures and do news reports on the counterrevolution when it took place.

b7C

[REDACTED] sent back word that that would be fine with him. He sent me his telephone number in Havana and said that he would notify me to come to Havana two days before the counter-revolution was to take place. I was notified. I flew to Havana on Saturday, the 8th of August, and according to instructions, checked into the Capri Hotel. Sunday I had been told to call [REDACTED] house. I did. An English speaking man answered the phone and asked me who I was. I told him. He asked me where I came from. I said where I came from, that I was a photographer and that I wished to take pictures of [REDACTED]. He said come over at 4 o'clock. In the accompaniment of a Cuban singing star whom I had met in New York, [REDACTED] we drove over to [REDACTED] house where once we entered it we were not allowed to leave. It was full of Secret Service men and conspirators who they had captured.

Interviewer: Was any reason given for your arrest?

[REDACTED] No reason whatsoever was given.

Interviewer: Well what happened from there on in?

[REDACTED] I was interrogated by teams of men and women as to the purpose of my coming to his house and at that particular time. [REDACTED] himself was not there. I did not know whether the people who were interrogating me were [REDACTED] people or CASTRO's people or whether they were working together. At times they hinted that [REDACTED] was in jail. Not wishing to to betray a man whom I didn't even know, all I said was that I was there to take his picture. They kept asking me why I had called this phone number, how I had gotten the number. I said all you had to do was call Information. They said that's impossible. I said I'll bet you $100 you can. They did not take me up on the bet. That evening, Sunday, August 9th, I was once again brought into the interrogation room. All the men left. There were three women present. Rather four women. [REDACTED] who appeared worried and who is expecting a baby. One of the female interrogators I had seen before, [REDACTED] who in civilian life or when she is not working as an agent, is an anesthesiologist, and two other women, whom I didn't know but later found out one was [REDACTED] and the other was [REDACTED] the secretary to FIDEL CASTRO. In an innocuous fashion [REDACTED] began questioning me. She is a charming person but every time she would ask me a question, such as I see you brought a lot of equipment with you, I was expected to give an answer as to why I brought the equipment. I said well it's just sufficient for one day's shooting, and she would say ah, it was only supposed to take place one day is that it. I said I don't know what you're talking about and who are you, and she would say oh, I'm a friend of [REDACTED]

b7C

I said, do you work for the government? She would say no. Then she would ask me another question. Why did you bring your paratrooper boots? I said whenever I go to a country I may get out in the hills I always bring boots with me on a trip. Then she kept going around in circles. I asked if I could tape record the conversation and with that they ended the interrogation. They wouldn't allow me to do it.

Interviewer: Were you mistreated in any way?

[REDACTED] Not other than being detained and having one argument with [REDACTED] who is one of the big guns for CASTRO in his Secret Service, at [REDACTED] when he was abusing my recorder trying to work it. I told him I'd show him how but he grabbed it away from me and I grabbed it back and all the boys looked as if some trouble would happen. We were not abused, in fact we were treated fine. But after that when we were taken to Libertad Military Headquarters it's a different story. Now I'm saying we. The following Tuesday [REDACTED] United Press came to the house and she too was held. We were told on the following day, Wednesday, that we would be taken over to Libertad Military Headquarters that night to see CAMILO CIENFUEGOS, who was a friend [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] He is also the head of the CASTRO Army. In the meantime, on Tuesday, for the first time a representative of the American Government showed up at the house, a man by the name of [REDACTED] from the Embassy.

Interviewer: How many days after you had been held prisoner?

[REDACTED] I was held Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, it was the third day. He didn't know I was there or so he claimed. Now we never saw a member of the Consulate or the Embassy again until the following Friday when a man by the name [REDACTED] walked in and his first words to me were, I understand you are giving these people a very difficult time. I said, sir, why don't you ask them why they're giving us a difficult time. This man eventually asked what he could do for us. I asked for a pair of shorts since I had a minimum of equipment with me and they had taken away most of it, and also for some medical advice with regard to a severe sinus condition. I never heard from him again. b7C

Interviewer: How did you finally effect your release?

[REDACTED] We saw [REDACTED] in Libertad Military Headquarters Saturday. [REDACTED] said, oh, they're going to let you out, and he said, we've got nothing against you but they think that [REDACTED] works for the Dominican Republic, which by the way is an absurdity, and that we were told they would let us out that night. They didn't. Eventually at one o'clock in the morning on Tuesday they let us go, but the real difficult part of the story actually took place from Wednesday night on in the intelligence offices and in the places that we were kept in Libertad Military Headquarters. They heaped abuse upon us for being Americans, b7C for being members of the press. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] started pushing me with his guards around.

I knocked his arms off and knocked him over. Then on another night when we tried to use the phone to call the American Embassy and they were denying us any rights, privileges and so forth, I told them that we were going to use the phone. [REDACTED] and I started walking towards the phone with [REDACTED] who is an American pilot they also held prisoner, and who had come up out of a general place of detention with us when we revolted at the conditions there. Now we started walking in this office, which was in the Inspector General's office, and about midnight, towards the phone. They called 25 guards, officers and men to come up. They formed a semi-circle about us and one member of the intelligence, an interrogator, stood there and they started yelling at us, you cannot use the phones, we'll fire at you if you come forward. We walked forward. When I was about a foot from the nearest guard two shots rang out. They fired at our feet, one went past my left leg and one bit the marble of the floor so that it chewed up and it scratched [REDACTED] leg. They then moved in and said, we'll separate them, and she grabbed hold, [REDACTED] grabbed hold of my arm, a guard grabbed hold of another arm and they started to come in on me. I pushed away a few of them. In the meantime they grabbed [REDACTED] and they beat the hell out of him. They knocked him to the ground, they rabbit punched him and they just carried him off. b7C

Interviewer: You were finally asked to leave the island, were you not?

[REDACTED] We were told, that if we, rather that I was not being deported but that it was a good idea to leave, and Monday, rather Tuesday morning at 1 o'clock some of their agents started driving us to the, driving me, that is they had taken [REDACTED] earlier to her home, and they were driving me to the Hilton Hotel. We had two car crashes en route. b7C

Interviewer: Well it's obviously the isle of intrigue.

[REDACTED] Yes.

Interviewer: Now just what is the situation in Cuba? Let's start with FIDEL CASTRO. Is the man as sincere as he would have us believe? Is he pro-Communist? Just what is he?

[REDACTED] I don't actually, to know what CASTRO is I would say is an impossibility. You can tell more by the results or effects of the programs that he puts in order and by the actions of the people who serve under him than by CASTRO. Whether he is honest or not I don't know. I do know this, I will have the information for a story which will reveal b7C why an American was recently murdered in Havana who was in on a deal with CASTRO, I am told, I don't have proof of it yet, whereby Cuban peso notes in high denominations were cashed by CASTRO and by Cuban bankers whereby CASTRO's profit on it was two million dollars and is deposited, the money is deposited in Switzerland by his sister who attends school there.

Interviewer: This sounds more like BATISTA than CASTRO doesn't it?

[REDACTED] It seems to me that whoever gets power in those countries runs pretty true to form.

Interviewer: Talking about power, what about the role

[REDACTED]
the Armed Forces?

[REDACTED] From the information given to me by officers of CASTRO's Army and by other people that I've been in contact with [REDACTED] and "CHE" GUEVARA run the country. They are developing a militaristic spirit. They are trying to develop nationalism in its most rampant form based upon hatred of the US. Also they are brainwashing the younger officers, they are indoctrinating them with Communism and in many hours of discussion and cross examination by their people in their Inspector General's office and with their G-2 members, there is no doubt in my mind that they are trying to further the interest of Communism and they are making the US look bad.

Interviewer: Is FIDEL's position endangered by the attitude

[REDACTED]

b7C

[REDACTED] I couldn't say because most of the people from the little children on up, 5 and 6 year old boys, run up to you on the street and say, Gracias FIDEL. In their shows, I saw the show in the Capri that this fellow [REDACTED] starred in, and the closing lines of the whole show in a song are Gracias, Gracias, Muy Gracias FIDEL. I think that FIDEL is being used as a figurehead [REDACTED] and by "CHE" GUEVARA, who is a noted Argentinean Communist. He is being used as a figurehead to maintain the devotion of the poorer people who look on him as their greatest saviour since [REDACTED]

b7C

[REDACTED] But, in the meantime, the youth in the schools and on the streets are being regimented, children from the ages of 5 up are being marched and believe it or not almost in goose step fashion and I took pictures of them, they're being drilled in military maneuvers. Now the youth, older youth who have been made members of the G-2, and it is dangerous as the ~~duce~~^{deuse} for anybody who goes to Cuba because these are boys who did not fight in the Sierra Maestra and are trying to make names for themselves. They walk around with two guns in their belts under their shirts and carrying Thompson submachine guns and they try to catch anything that anybody says too, as if you are saying something against the Cuban Government and against CASTRO.

Interviewer: This in effect is a police state?

[REDACTED] It is, you have it right there. It is a police state and the people in Cuba, they jump and they immediately dash to do whatever they are told by these young hoods who are running around in the guise of Secret Police. b7C

Interviewer: How long can a government like this last in your opinion?

[REDACTED] How long did it last with HITLER and how long has it lasted with STALIN and KHRUSHCHEV.

Interviewer: You make that analogy then?

[REDACTED] I do make it because that's what they're attempting and I do not think that it should be permitted 90 miles from American coast. b7C

Interviewer: FIDEL CASTRO has often been called the professional revolutionist. What do you think of that? Do you agree with that?

[REDACTED] I agree that he is and I also know this too, that when I talk with people who lived with FIDEL in Mexico during his exile and when the whole story on that comes out we'll find b7C out that FIDEL CASTRO and his group of Cuban exiles committed murder after murder in Mexico with the approval of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] and had many meetings with him and if you notice recently when they were trying to raise the social status of the CASTRO Government, who was the man that they brought down to talk? [REDACTED] who long since has been out of circulation in Mexico. b7C

Interviewer: [REDACTED] summarizing our discussion, how would you put it?

[REDACTED] I'd put it this way. That because of the accrues that I have showing the involvement of CASTRO and his government behind attempted invasions and invasions of many other lands in the Caribbean, of meeting the men who partook in those invasions, even though CASTRO has said, I had nothing to do with them, and finding them in the G-2 headquarters in positions of responsibility, I think this puts the lie to CASTRO. It shows that he is doing much to embarrass the American Government in order to perhaps show to the people he's not afraid of the US. I think that "CHE" GUEVARA, who organized a CP Headquarters in every province of Cuba after they took over, is doing everything he can to make Cuba Communist and that they are doing it b7C particularly with the bright young men of the Army. They've got them brainwashed. I have been told by several officers who are sticking their necks out that they're going to stay there to try to fight the Communists from within the Army. I don't think that that should be allowed to exist. Cuba has been known as the Pearl of the Antilles. It is becoming the red ruby in the Red Treasure Chest of Red Nations.

Interviewer: Do you feel that our State Department has been following a sort of hands off policy.

██████████ I think the State Department representatives in Cuba should be kicked out. I think that it is about time that some of them began acting like men instead of bowing down to everyone. Weakness has gained us nothing. HITLER and MUSSOLINI saw some of the weak sisters that we sent to them and World War II resulted. Russia has tried to kick us around and has gotten away with it obviously for a long time. I do not see why a guy that comes out of the hills wearing a beard just to frighten people should frighten the American Embassy.

b7c

Interviewer: Do you think CASTRO's day are numbered in Cuba?

██████████ Absolutely, I think in 4 months that they'll be in such economic stress that the time will be proper for the counterrevolutionaries actually to move in and create an invasion which this recent hoax with ██████████ was not. That was only the flying in of 10 technicians to train the men that [REDACTED] supposedly had raised.

b7C

Interviewer: Who will they be? Who will the new regime be?

[REDACTED] [REDACTED] has been designated as the provisional president of Cuba when the counterrevolutionaries take over. [REDACTED] is one of the greatest friends of the US. He was for many years [REDACTED] He would propose bills in the UN in matters which would have been defeated if the US had presented them and he got them to do it. [REDACTED] and his men are enemies of BATISTA as well as enemies of CASTRO. There is no BATISTA element concerned with this particular group.

b7C

Interviewer: Are BATISTA's days over?

[REDACTED] BATISTA is out of it. BATISTA had nothing to do with this and I think his own followers would like to kill him as well as kill [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] who were pretty bloody fellows under BATISTA.

b7C

Interviewer: Thank you [REDACTED]

I SUBJECT: FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA; INTERNAL SECURITY - CUBA

Re Washington Field Office airtel and memorandum dated 10/14/59, in which Washington Field Office informant [REDACTED] advised he was informed by a man whose last name is [REDACTED] that the Cuban Peninsula of Zapata is in the process of being converted into a Russian submarine and missile base. b7C/D

On October 28, 1959, [REDACTED] advised he was a former registered agent of the Cuban Government, but by letter dated October 12, 1959, the U. S. Department of Justice advised him that his registration had been cancelled. b7C

[REDACTED] stated he did not know [REDACTED] and had not visited Washington, D. C., or made telephonic contact with anyone in that city. b7C

[REDACTED] stated that there was much rumor and speculation as to the alleged construction on the Cuban Peninsula of Zapata, and there have been many rumors that the Russian Government is constructing a rocket and missile base. b7C

FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA

On November 3, 1959, a confidential informant, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the following information came to light during a discussion between [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] both of whom are representatives in the United States of the French Foreign Intelligence and Counterespionage Service. (u)

According to the informant, [REDACTED] stated that he had authority from Paris to travel to Cuba at his discretion and he plans to go to that country toward the end of November, 1959. With regard to a request received [REDACTED] to bring approximately 100 boxes of cigars from Cuba for a friend, [REDACTED] doubted under the present conditions that he would be able to take more than ten boxes of cigars from Cuba at one time. (u)

When discussing the current situation in Cuba, [REDACTED] commented that it reminded him of the mass exodus from France during World War II brought about by the fall of the French Government. [REDACTED] commented that the diplomatic pouch in Cuba is being seized and opened. Explaining this further, [REDACTED] stated that approximately three months ago the former French Ambassador to Cuba consigned the French diplomatic pouch to a courier. The courier was stopped and the Ambassador was taken to the Cuban Foreign Ministry under armed guard. He was then told to open the pouch and upon refusing to do so the Cubans called in the Ambassador from the United Arab Republic and opened the pouch in that Ambassador's presence. He went on to say that as recently as three weeks ago there were 12 armed men in the residence of the French Ambassador. The informant did not know the nationality of the armed men. [REDACTED] described the Cuban situation as dangerous and indicated that once you are in a room the Cuban police come to your room and search it. He commented that this happened to him on his last visit to Cuba. (u)

RE: FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA

Informant stated that [REDACTED] commented that there is no reasonableness in Cuba at the present time and stated further that there is at least some reasonableness at the present time in communist dominated countries. In this regard he pointed out that the head of the Cuban intelligence organization is a 22 year old lieutenant and the Undersecretary of Foreign Affairs in Cuba is 26 years old. These persons were not further identified to the informant. b7C

This memo has been classified Confidential because it indicates the Bureau's interest in a diplomatic establishment of a foreign government; also to protect the source whose disclosure might be detrimental to the National defense.

The NYO indices reflect no reference to the name American Committee for the Defense Against the First Communist International.

The NYO indices reflect no derogatory information identifiable with the American Committee for the First Anti Communist International (ACFACI) or [Redacted]. It is felt that the ACFACI may have potential as a source of intelligence information. In view of the fact that the organization openly sponsored a dinner at the Sheraton Mc Alpin Hotel in NYC on 9/18/59, the NYO feels that the organization could be initially contacted for the purpose of explaining the Bureau's jurisdiction and

On November 2, 1959, [redacted] advised that [redacted] in New York, remarked he had been contacted [redacted] the American Committee for the Defense Against the First Communist International. [redacted] had in his possession a cable signed [redacted] to the Prime Minister of Cuba. [redacted] said the cable read "[redacted] (ph) is in jail for having acted as Minister of propaganda of bloody Batista tyranny. Should you want to find out yourself that the Cuban Revolutionary Government is not Communist we invite you to come to Havana." b2 b7C

[redacted] informed that [redacted] said [redacted] and his organization wanted to accept the invitation to study the situation in Cuba and make the facts, favorable or unfavorable, known to the American press. According to the informant, [redacted] discussed the matter with [redacted] and it was agreed that arrangements should be made for [redacted] and other representatives of his organization to visit Cuba at their own expense for the aforementioned purpose.

It is to be noted that [redacted] mentioned above may be [redacted] who addressed a party held at the Sheraton Mc Alpin Hotel in New York City on September 18, 1959, under the auspices of the American Committee for the First Anti Communist International, 156 West 44th Street, New York City.

FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA

On November 7, 1959, a confidential informant who has furnished reliable information in the past learned from [redacted] the Organization of American States (OAS), that [redacted] and [redacted] had visited various members of the Peace Commission of OAS for the purpose of explaining Cuba's position regarding the dropping of leaflets over Havana in recent weeks. According to [redacted] he and [redacted] were well satisfied with the results of these conferences. WCS

In this regard [redacted] stated that a recent statement by the United States Government to the effect that it would not recognize any Cuban Government in exile formed [redacted]

[redacted] (under Fulgencio Batista), and the recent arrest of [redacted] (the Cuban Air Force) has had the effect of reducing tensions between the Governments of Cuba and the United States. [redacted] stated that he, [redacted] and others interpret these moves as significant indications that the United States Government desires to alleviate the differences between the two countries. WCS

Inasmuch as the publications mentioned in referenced communication apparently originated in Havana, Cuba, the Bureau at this time does not desire the New York Office to continue to obtain copies of them.

Enclosed for Legat, Havana, are one copy of referenced New York airtel and a Photostat of part of a newspaper which has been tentatively identified as either "La Calle" or "Campo." Legat, Havana, should identify this newspaper and advise the Bureau if there is any reason for New York Office to complete arrangements to obtain copies of this newspaper.

NOTE:

The New York Office through an anonymous source obtained a copy of a Havana, Cuba, newspaper which has been tentatively identified as "La Calle" or "Campo." In addition, New York also obtained a copy of the newspaper "Hoy" and requested to be advised if the Bureau was interested in receiving copies of the above-mentioned publications. The newspaper "Hoy" is an official organ of the Cuban Communist Party. Bufiles do not indicate identity of "La Calle" or "Campo" and Legat is being requested to identify this newspaper and determine if we should have New York obtain copies of it.

An anonymous source, on 10/30/59, made available pages 3, 4, 5 and 6 of a newspaper from Havana, Cuba dated 10/24/59. This newspaper was being sent from Havana, Cuba to "Finlands Kommunistiska Parti, Sturenkatu 4 IV Kerros, Helsingi, Finlandia".

Pages 3, 4, 5 and 6 of this newspaper were exhibited to [REDACTED] NYC, and to [REDACTED] Channel 12 in Havana, Cuba, and they stated they were not sure of the identity of this newspaper, but indicated that it might possibly be "La Calle" or "Campo". [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] were questioned as to whether or not this could be the Communist newspaper "Hoy", and they stated this newspaper was badly written and did not think it was "Hoy" as "Hoy" usually only has four pages in an edition.

An anonymous source, on 11/2/59, furnished a copy of pages 1 and 2 of "Hoy" dated 10/23/58, which on page 2 carries the date of 10/23/59. This newspaper was being sent from Havana, Cuba to "Dannemark Kommunistiske Parti, [REDACTED]".

Photostat copies of these two newspapers are being enclosed for the information of the Bureau and for the Bureau to determine whether or not these papers have any significance or connection with international Communism. The NYO will be in a position to possibly obtain further copies of these papers, and the Bureau is requested to advise the NYO whether or not these papers are of interest and whether or not the Bureau desires the NYO to continue obtaining them and furnishing them to the Bureau.

The image consists of two side-by-side black and white photographs. Both photographs show large, dense crowds of people, likely students, gathered in an urban setting. In both photos, a prominent sign with the word 'PAREDON' (Spanish for 'hanging' or 'execution') is held up by the crowd. The left photograph shows a crowd in front of a building with a sign that also says 'PAREDON'. The right photograph shows a crowd on a street with a sign that says 'PAREDON' and another sign in the background that says 'EL CAJON'. The images are grainy and have a high-contrast, almost stencil-like quality.

La lección de los hechos del...

(Continuación de la primera)

No puede haber avance económico, diversificación agrícola, industrialización del país y mejoramiento duradero para el campesinado y el obrero si no se mantienen los privilegios de los latifundistas, pedreros, acaparadores, usureros, etc., o si se añade una parte de éstos y se les dan medios para reconstruir su economía del campo y de los campesinos y trabajadores. La disyuntiva es clara: o se abren y trabajan por completo el latifundio y los privilegios de los latifundistas o no hay progreso para nuestra economía ni mejoramiento real y duradero para los campesinos y trabajadores agrícolas.

Imperialistas, latifundistas, usureros, magnates explotadores, grandes inquilinos, etc., no se conforman con la pérdida de sus privilegios, no reconocen la injusticia y maldad de su causa. Por eso se lanzan contra la revolución y actúan contra ella por todo recurso a la fuerza y a la campaña de mentiras, tanto como a la presión económica y al sabotaje de la producción, como al ametrallamiento y al golpe del pueblo desarmado y al criminal atentado dinamítico.

Detrás de la contienda sangradora de Hubert Matos están los intereses de los enemigos de la revolución.

Lo de Hubert Matos es una traición.

Se necesita ha estado enredada contra la revolución y contra sus máximos líderes.

El concepto oportunista y fuera del Ejército Rebelde una fracción que apra a la rebelión, a la insubordinación, al chantaje, al maltrato del pueblo de Estado contra las autoridades legítimas de la revolución, contra Fidel Castro y sus colaboradores.

En la recuperación con los elementos mulatistas y derechistas, promoviendo divisiones sindicales acútas, que de espaldas al sentimiento y a las necesidades de los trabajadores, se han movido para poner en marcha sus planes conservativos e impedir que las masas obreras se movilizaran en defensa de la revolución y de su dirigente máximo.

El se rodó de un aparato civil y de una burocracia de incondicionales que le sirvieron en sus propósitos.

El se confió a unos cuantos líderes estudiantiles traidores para dar el golpe que el trabajo para controlar, mediante acaparamiento, los recursos petroleros y a la gran masa guerrilla que está decidida a luchar por la revolución y por Fidel.

Todos sus móviles tenían una sola finalidad política: imponer a Fidel y al Ejército revolucionario, imponer el programa de retroceso, de marcha atrás, de desvirtuar la revolución.

Esto tiene un solo nombre: traición.

Hubert Matos en su carta provocación, dirigida a Fidel y dada públicamente a la prensa, apela a la distribución, como la ha distribuido, a la prensa, apela al recurso común de todos los traidores: el anticomunismo.

El anticomunismo es el lema de los imperialistas yanquis.

El anticomunismo es el lema de los latifundistas.

El anticomunismo es el lema de los pedreros.

El anticomunismo es el lema de la Marina.

El anticomunismo es el lema de Díaz Lanz, de Urrutia, de la Rosa Blanca, de Busta, de Pedraza, de Núñez Portuondo y de todos sus secuaces.

Todos ellos gritan contra el comunismo, pero no exponen su verdadero programa.

Hubert Matos acusa a Fidel de actuar contra los que lo hablan con franqueza contra el comunismo, pero...

¿No se han lanzado éstos, previamente al amparo del anticomunismo, contra la revolución, contra las leyes revolucionarias y contra la autoridad que el pueblo ha otorgado a Fidel?

¿Qué es el comunismo para ellos?

El comunismo es, según ellos, mantener intransigentemente la soberanía nacional frente a todas las presiones, ingerencias, amenazas e intentos de intromisión de los imperialistas yanquis.

El comunismo es, para ellos, sostener, contra todos los embates, la ley radical de la reforma agraria, aplicar hasta acabar con el latifundio, fomentar las cooperativas, establecer las tiendas del pueblo libre, y a su vez, proclamar los derechos de los intermediarios, acaparadores, usureros, almacenistas, etc.

El comunismo es, para ellos, defender con medidas drásticas las divisas, emprender la industrialización, negociar el comercio y las relaciones con todos los países, mantener una política independiente en la ONU, combatir la guerra fría, combatir el intervencionismo de la OEA, que se quiere convertir en el superpatro — controlado desde Washington — para la América Latina, responder con la verdad a las mentiras de la SIP, de la AP, UPI y Diario de la Marina, de los periódicos y periodistas norteamericanos.

El comunismo, para ellos, es mantener la autoridad de los comandantes militares de la Sierra Maestra y de Los Villos, de la montaña y el llano, como Raúl Castro, Ernesto Guevara, Camilo Cienfuegos, etc., que no sólo pelearon con valor, sino que, con integridad vertical, mantienen los principios de la revolución y se dan a ella en cuerpo y alma, dispuestos a seguir — hasta el fin sin miedos — ante sus furiosos enemigos.

Para ellos el comunismo es reclamar la unidad, la coordinación y la cooperación de todas las fuerzas revolucionarias: pedreros, obreros y campesinos, estén a la derecha, a la izquierda o en el centro, siempre que se mantengan dentro del marco de la revolución.

ayer en discusión con la patronal de la Vacueta, el grupo del completo de salario, para poder concurrir al sepelio de Joaquín Fernández. Antes de salir en manifestación defendieron un manifiesto calado con la firma Comité de Trabajadores del Movimiento 26 de Julio y Comité del Partido Socialista Popular del Muelle de Paula.

Dice este importante documento:

Denunciamos el complot y el ataque perpetrado en la tarde de ayer, al pueblo cubano por los jesuitas y traidores a la Patria. Apoyamos al Gobierno Revolucionario y su máximo líder Fidel Castro, ponemos todos los brazos y las fuerzas a su lado hoy más firmes y unidos que nunca para defender en todo lo que valen a las leyes revolucionarias y a nuestro pueblo.

Libertad o Muerte.

Comité de Trabajadores Marítimos del Muelle de Paula del Movimiento 26 de Julio.

Comité del Partido Socialista Popular de los Trabajadores del Muelle de Paula.

Al partir la manifestación de los trabajadores marítimos se les unieron los obreros de la Havana Central, los que engrasaron la misma con banderas cubanas y lenas alusivas a la defensa de la Reforma Agraria.

Entre otras exclamaciones: «¡Abajo los traidores! ¡Abajo el imperialismo! ¡Viva el Ejército Rebelde! ¡sobrellevo rítmicamente una sola palabra corada por miles de gargantas enrojecidas: ¡Parredón! ¡Par-redón! ¡Parredón!»

LOS TALLEROS

La calle Reina, una de las vías céntricas de la capital, que conduce desde el centro de La Habana, hasta la funeraria San José, enclavada precisamente en la Avenida de Carlos III, que es la continuación de Reina, fue obligada ruta de los cientos de manifestaciones que espontáneamente se organizaron y marcharon hacia el lugar de partida del centro.

Precisamente en la esquina de Reina y Amistad, se concentraron más de setecientos tabaqueros de las fábricas H. Upmann y Partagás, improvisando un comitativo militante, en el que hicieron uso de la palabra el señor — Ángel Arbolé, secretario de la Sección Sindical de H. Upmann, los dos sindicatos dirigidos también de los tabaqueros de este lugar y Pablo González, obrero azucarero del central Los Caños, término municipal de Guanajay, que llamó a mantener y defender la unidad de los obreros y campesinos.

Estos tabaqueros, que participaron hacia el lugar de la salida del entierro, marcharon a lo largo de la calle Reina y la Avenida de Carlos III, en la cual enclavada otras manifestaciones que se dirigían al mismo lugar: con telas en las que llamaban al pueblo a defender la Reforma Agraria, luchar junto al Gobierno y a pelear toda conjura contrarrevolucionaria.

Desfilando por la calle de Galiano y sosteniendo un enorme letrero en el que se leía «AL PARREDÓN» obreros del Sindicato Elaboradores de Cristales, una enorme multitud de personas los seguía, todas las expresiones eran de repulsa contra los traidores Hubert Matos, Díaz Lanz y sus seguidores: en contra de la actitud de los Estados Unidos que permitían que de su territorio salieran los traidores a ametrallar pueblos indefensos que ningún daño les había hecho.

Queremos la amistad del pueblo norteamericano, pero acusamos al Gobierno de Estados Unidos de permitir los actos criminales de ayer, gritaban. Queremos que sean castigados los culpables!

BRIGADAS FEMENINAS

Por la calle de Galiano desfilaban cantando el Himno del Ejército Rebelde, las Brigadas Femeninas Revolucionarias. La multitud las seguía y las aplaudía a su paso gritando «¡Abajo los traidores! ¡Abajo el imperialismo! ¡Viva Fidel! ¡Parredón! ¡Par-redón! ¡Parredón!»

«¡Que viva Fidel! ¡Que viva Fidel!» permitían que de los Estados Unidos salieran más aviones a ametrallar nuestro pueblo, ¡que viva Fidel y el Gobierno Revolucionario!

Nancy Astrán nos dijo: «¡Que mueran los traidores, el acto criminal de ayer no debe repetirse!»

OBROS DE LA

«¿Qué harían ellos si aviones cubanos salen de nuestro país y ametrallan la ciudad de New York u otra cualquiera? Nos dijo una obrera.

«Cuba no puede permitir que esto vuelva a suceder, queremos que nuestro pueblo viva en paz y que dejen al Gobierno desarrollar su plan de beneficio para nuestro país.

EL MINISTRO DE JUSTICIA

Ante el Ministerio de Justicia se encontraban un grupo de empleados del Ministerio y el frente de ellos, el doctor Yabur, Ministro de Justicia, a quien nos acercamos y le preguntamos: «Dr. ¿qué piensa usted del atentado que sobre la población hicieron ayer, causando tantas víctimas?»

«El doctor Yabur, nos dijo: «Fue un acto criminal que puede calificarse de salvaje y peor aún».

«Una empleada del Ministerio se nos acerca y nos dice: «Los criminales tienen que ser castigados, los horrores de ayer no deben repetirse, debemos prepararnos para que no puedan escapar impune estos desventurados traidores».

OBROS DEL PAIS

Frente al periódico «El País» tribuna desde la que Pablo Pérez del Comité del taller del diario, habló a la multitud que se aglomeró para escuchar a los oradores. El público norteamericano contemplaba la misma multitud y el mismo entusiasmo. La calle de Reina lucía como un gran río humano desde el que se alzaba un gran clamor: «VEN A LA GANZA».

EN REINA Y AMISTAD

En Reina y Amistad, frente a la Sears los empleados de dicha tienda se lanzaron a la calle y cantaron el Himno Nacional. Portaban carteles que decían Viva Fidel, Apoyamos a Fidel Castro, ¡Abajo los traidores! En los repisos se veían muchas mujeres, que parecían alentar con más viveza el coraje y la fe revolucionaria del momento.

Más adelante — en Reina y Amistad — donde está la tienda de «Los Precios Fijos», también se contemplaba la misma multitud y el mismo entusiasmo. La calle de Reina lucía como un gran río humano desde el que se alzaba un gran clamor: «VEN A LA GANZA».

EN REINA Y GALIANO

La perspectiva de la amplia avenida de Galiano, desde la calle de Reina, era algo imposible de describir. El público, los empleados y obreros, los sencillos transeúntes que van de compras, todos, estaban en el centro de la ciudad Avenida, haciendo miles de comentarios en contra de los criminales de guerra, demostrando la unidad monolítica del pueblo de Cuba, que está dispuesto a morir por conservar su libertad y por defender las Leyes Revolucionarias y el Gobierno, encarnado en la figura de Fidel.

Los empleados de los Almacenes «Eltra», portaban una tela blanca decida: «Queremos Milicias Obreras para defender la Revolución». He ahí expresado el sentir general de los trabajadores y de la población de la Habana.

OBROS DE «EL PAIS»

Las columnas del edificio del periódico «El País» hacían algunos carteles con consignas revolucionarias, pugnando el castigo de Hubert Matos y demás traidores y contrarrevolucionarios.

«¡Dejarlo ir para qué! Al parredón», decía un cartón. Y otro: «Fidel sacude la mata para tumbar lo podrido».

En otras dos columnas se podían leer estas frases: «La Revolución puede pedir nuestras vidas para defenderla» y «Pedimos

Con CIEN OJOS...

LOS pronunciamientos del doctor Manuel Bissé, despedido cubano ante las Naciones Unidas, en relación con el llamado «problema tibetano», han sido sencillamente sorprendentes.

En los momentos en que nuestro pueblo sufre el ametrallamiento de aviones que han despegado del territorio de los Estados Unidos y que han pilotado traidores al movimiento revolucionario cubano de la condición repulsa de los Díaz Lanz y los Hubert Matos, el doctor Bissé repite la versión sobre el Tibet propalada interesadamente por las mismas agencias de noticias que desfiguran la realidad de Cuba.

Es difícil comprender cómo se pueda no ver que la misma mano imperialista que arma a los traidores y criminales de guerra para que ataquen a Cuba fué la que armó a los latifundistas tibetanos para el complot criminal ocurrido en la lejana provincia china. Para la UPI los Dalai Lama del Tibet, es decir, los Urrutia, Díaz Lanz y Matos de allá, son los «héroes», precisamente por oponerse a la reforma agraria, a la industrialización.

Para que se tenga una idea de hasta qué punto la prensa yanqui de-forma los hechos, hasta señalar que hoy se esfuerza por presentar como una «hazaña», el crimen terrible del Dalai Lama, el doctor Bissé repite la versión sobre el Tibet propalada interesadamente por las mismas agencias de noticias que desfiguran la realidad de Cuba.

...hasta el fin del mundo... ante sus furibundos enemigos. Para ellos el comunismo es reclamar la unidad, la coordinación y la cooperación de todas las fuerzas revolucionarias, populares, obreras y campesinas, estén a la derecha, a la izquierda o en el centro, siempre que se mantengan dentro del campo de la revolución y se entreguen las líneas esenciales de plena soberanía, democracia, independencia y de la estructura semicolonial, industrialización y prosperidad económica.

Esos son los que quieren combatir cuando dicen que se combaten al comunismo.

No es extraño encontrar ahora a muchos elementos de las clases medias e incluso de sectores atrasados de la clase obrera, que fueron enemizados durante años con la propaganda del comunismo, que dicen que el rojo es comunismo, ellos están con el comunismo y que se siga adelante.

Volvamos a la característica de la acción de Hubert Matos. ¿No es clara su intención de hacer el mayor daño posible a la revolución al escoger el momento en que se celebraba la "conferencia del ASTA para promover su algarada golpista"?

Es un acto casual que ordene entregar su carta a la prensa, cuando ya que los aviones que vienen desde Estados Unidos en su poder, en la Habana, la carta del miserable Díaz Lanz?

¿No es casual que la carta de Hubert Matos y la del informante de la CIA de los Estados Unidos caigan en su poder, para un mismo punto de vista y tengan, en varios aspectos, tanto similitud?

¿No es casual que los aviones que vienen desde Estados Unidos se desvíen en este día para ametrallar al pueblo? ¿No esperarían a que coincidiera con una insubordinación de los manifestantes en Camagüey, huelgas y manifestaciones estudiantiles en Cienfuegos, para el tema de defender a Hubert Matos y a su carta sin municipal?

¿No es casual que se había preparado para descargar coordinadamente los ataques contra la revolución era serio, la revolución lo ha frustrado.

¿No es casual que al descubrirlo y aunque algunas entidades de la Habana, Camagüey y Cienfuegos se hayan referido sólo a la "movilización de la revolución"?

¿No es casual que la revolución y ha debilitado a sus enemigos, que han perdido uno de los instrumentos que pensaban que les serviría?

¿No es casual que la conspiración y ha movilizado al pueblo para la revolución?

¿No es casual que nunca mantenga la movilización y la revolución y se uniese en torno al Ejército Rebelde, del Gobierno Revolucionario y de su socio y resuelto líder, el comandante victorioso Fidel Castro?

De la "Disidencia" al crimen...

...había de la izquierda, conjura, escribe que los hechos del "diálogo" muestran de un pueblo tan hondamente cristiano y pacífico como el nuestro.

¿No es casual que los hechos que desdienten a los cubanos y a los cubanos que ven el pueblo cubano, le cabe a una gran similitud a este pueblo generoso, en el ametrallamiento de los cubanos, realizado por los manifestantes de las ciudades, los manifestantes y demás fuerza contrarrevolucionaria, que ahora como lo pronosticaba hace meses?

¿No es casual que en un mismo y único propósito, echar atrás la revolución, todos se vendrán en que nada puede vincular al pueblo cubano, sus montañas cobardes, ¿Se trata entonces de calificar a los cubanos, la respuesta enfática, viril y justiciera?

¿No es casual que camuflado, con el respaldo de la ciudadanía, la respuesta enfática, viril y justiciera?

Otra de las manifestaciones por la calle Reina, fue la de las empleadas de la tienda Sears, que por tener que incorporar nuevamente a su centro de trabajo a las cuatro de la tarde, no podían concurrir al sepelio, pero sin embargo, emplearon todo el tiempo en marchar por las calles aledañas a la tienda, vistiendo el uniforme rojo y negro y entonando el Himno del 26 de Julio.

La calle Murala, ese viejo rincón colonial de La Habana de los tiempos viejos, centro de actividades comerciales, quedó vacía a las tres de la tarde, cuando todos los empleados de los establecimientos de la misma, se lanzaron a las calles.

Tomaron por Monserrate en dirección al Palacio Presidencial y a lo largo del trayecto, nuevos y nutridos contingentes de obreros y empleados se sumaban a la manifestación que levantaba su indignada protesta contra la acción de los criminales de guerra, y mostraba su adhesión al Gobierno.

Cuando el enorme gentío de miles de personas arribó a la mansión palatina, fue recibida en los balcones por el Ciudadano Presidente de la República, Dr. Osvaldo Dorticos Torrado, el que acompañado del Dr. Armando Hart y otros miembros del Consejo de Ministros saludaban a la multitud.

A requerimientos del pueblo, el presidente Dorticos, dirigió breves palabras a los presentes, afirmando que "en uno, ni dos, ni cien bombardeos juntos, podrían paralizar al Gobierno Revolucionario", aconsejando al pueblo que escuchara al Dr. Fidel Castro por la televisión, a la vez que convocaba al pueblo a una gran concentración frente al Palacio Presidencial, el próximo lunes, a las ocho de la noche.

OBROS DE LA CASA DE LA 1, 2 y 3

Las obreras y obreros del Sindicato de la Casa de la 1, 2, y 3, centavos, se encontraban en medio de la calle frente a la tienda y sostenían una enorme tela en la que leímos: "Apoyamos al Gobierno Revolucionario, Sindicato de la Casa de la 1, 2, y 3 centavos."

Las muchachas pidieron a gritos: ¡AL PAREDÓN HUBERT MATOS Y LOS CONTRARREVOLUCIONARIOS! ¡APOYAMOS AL GOBIERNO REVOLUCIONARIO! ¡LA REFORMA AGRARIA! ¡DE LOS ESTADOS UNIDOS SALIERON LOS AVIONES QUE LLENAN DE DOLOR MUCHOS HOGARES CUBANOS!

Una de las empleadas, Nancy Acosta, gritó: ¡Que nos presten a los obreros, que nos lo presten y verán que dejan de serlo!

TALLERES "ULTRA"

¡Gritando y cantando el himno del Ejército Rebelde y con una bandera cubana sostenida por varias obreras, se encontraban en la Calle Reina un grupo de muchachas y empleados de los Talleres de "Ultra", los que nos dijeron a viva voz: ¡Que los traidores, Hubert Matos y los otros al paredón, hay que asesinarlos por anti-patriotas! ¡La Reforma Agraria! ¡Viva Fidel Castro y el Gobierno Revolucionario!

TALLERES "PARAMOUNT"

Las obreras Genoveva Ramírez, Delia Suárez, Isidora Gutiérrez, María Ramírez, Adela Fernández y todas las obreras de los Talleres "Paramount", se encontraban frente al taller, dando vivas al Gobierno Revolucionario, a la Reforma Agraria, pudiendo castigar para los traidores y Genoveva Ramírez expresó:

—Queremos que avance la Revolución, que castiguen a los traidores y que se pule cuentas al Gobierno de Norteamérica por permitir que criminalmente desde su territorio vengán a asesinar impunemente a hombres, mujeres y niños indefensos en nuestra propia tierra.

En otras dos columnas se pueden leer mis notas, "La Revolución puede pedir nuestras vidas para defenderla" y "Pedimos fusilamiento de los asesinos".

EMPLEADOS DE LABORATORIOS VIETA

También la Sociedad Sindical del Laboratorio Vieta Placencia, lucía un cartel en la fachada del edificio: Apoyamos Gobierno Revolucionario. Fusilamiento de los traidores", decía.

Reina arriba, hacia Brásacón, el hervor de las consignas revolucionarias parecía acentuarse. La multitud pedía justicia contra los criminales.

Casi al mismo tiempo, por la misma calle de Reina, escenariaron de tantas manifestaciones, destilaban más de tres mil obreros del ramo de la construcción de las obras del INAV en la Habana del Este, que con una gran bandera cubana a la cabeza, mostraban una enorme tela con el lema: ¡Viva Latinoamérica Libre! ¡Viva la paz y en carteles demandaban el paro de fusilamiento para los traidores.

EL PARO EN "HOY"

En la tarde de la revolución, los trabajadores de redacción, administración y talleres, paralizaron sus labores a las tres de la tarde en cumplimiento fiel del llamado de la CTC, pero no limitaron a los asuntos internos de cada país. Por órdenes de Washington, el delegado de Chiang Kai shek, que a nadie más que a los Imperialistas representa, es uno de los más gritones en

En el barrio de Pueblo Nuevo, precisamente donde se encuentra situado el edificio de HOY, el reportero pudo observar que fue total el paro en las industrias Pepsi Cola, Orange Crush, Implementos Agrícolas, Jabón Tornillo, Licorera del Río S.A., Chapistería Enrique, Tráfico y Transporte. Por su parte, los obreros de implementos, cercaron la calle en Franco y Desagüe con equipos artísticos, y en Desagüe y Subirana los de Transporte atravesaron las rastras.

También, cumpliendo el acuerdo de la CTC paralizaron sus vehículos los chóferes de alquiler y particulares, y el comercio, solidarizándose con los trabajadores y el pueblo, cerró sus puertas.

En la fábrica Orange Crush se dio un mitin en el que el dirigente del Comité de Fábrica, Maurín, explicó a los trabajadores la importancia del paro de condena al ataque vandálico de los contrarrevolucionarios.

MANIFESTACIONES Y CARTELES

En la calle Monte, las muchachas de las tiendas "Gentleman" y "Almacenes Capri" partieron desplegando una gran bandera cubana y cantando el himno: a la segunda cuadra las veinte muchachas se habían transformado en cuatrocientos ciudadanos que gritaban a coro: ¡paredón! ¡paredón!

Casi al mismo tiempo, por la misma calle de Reina, escenariaron de tantas manifestaciones, destilaban más de tres mil obreros del ramo de la construcción de las obras del INAV en la Habana del Este, que con una gran bandera cubana a la cabeza, mostraban una enorme tela con el lema: ¡Viva Latinoamérica Libre! ¡Viva la paz y en carteles demandaban el paro de fusilamiento para los traidores.

EL PARO EN "HOY"

En la tarde de la revolución, los trabajadores de redacción, administración y talleres, paralizaron sus labores a las tres de la tarde en cumplimiento fiel del llamado de la CTC, pero no limitaron a los asuntos internos de cada país. Por órdenes de Washington, el delegado de Chiang Kai shek, que a nadie más que a los Imperialistas representa, es uno de los más gritones en

En el barrio de Pueblo Nuevo, precisamente donde se encuentra situado el edificio de HOY, el reportero pudo observar que fue total el paro en las industrias Pepsi Cola, Orange Crush, Implementos Agrícolas, Jabón Tornillo, Licorera del Río S.A., Chapistería Enrique, Tráfico y Transporte. Por su parte, los obreros de implementos, cercaron la calle en Franco y Desagüe con equipos artísticos, y en Desagüe y Subirana los de Transporte atravesaron las rastras.

También, cumpliendo el acuerdo de la CTC paralizaron sus vehículos los chóferes de alquiler y particulares, y el comercio, solidarizándose con los trabajadores y el pueblo, cerró sus puertas.

En la fábrica Orange Crush se dio un mitin en el que el dirigente del Comité de Fábrica, Maurín, explicó a los trabajadores la importancia del paro de condena al ataque vandálico de los contrarrevolucionarios.

MANIFESTACIONES Y CARTELES

En la calle Monte, las muchachas de las tiendas "Gentleman" y "Almacenes Capri" partieron desplegando una gran bandera cubana y cantando el himno: a la segunda cuadra las veinte muchachas se habían transformado en cuatrocientos ciudadanos que gritaban a coro: ¡paredón! ¡paredón!

By airtel 10/30/59 New York Office (NYO) has furnished transcript of broadcast of Radio Station WABC, date not given, consisting of interview [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] was arrested by Cuban authorities and held in custody for approximately a week during August, 1959, after anti-Castro plot had been exposed. [REDACTED] Castro military aide, who played along with conspirators, but doublecrossed them at last moment. [REDACTED] among others, was picked up at [REDACTED] home and, after being held for about a week, was released without prosecution, immediately thereafter leaving Cuba. b7C

In broadcast, [REDACTED] claimed he learned of possible Castro counterrevolution through friend of [REDACTED] in Miami and subsequently arranged to go to Cuba, with [REDACTED] approval, in order to be on hand and take pictures of counterrevolutionary events. He said he called at [REDACTED] home in Havana on instructions relayed to him by [REDACTED] through Miami friend, and he was picked up by Cuban police, although he had no part whatever in counterrevolutionary plot. [REDACTED] claimed Castro regime is dominated by [REDACTED] "Che" Guevara, both known communist sympathizers, and Fidel Castro is merely front man. [REDACTED] said Cuban armed forces are being indoctrinated with communist ideas and even 5-year-old children are being drilled in military maneuvers. He characterized current Cuban Government as police state which is rapidly becoming the "Red ruby in the Red Treasure Chest of Red Nations." He castigated State Department officials in Cuba for their weak-kneed reaction to Castro's threats and anti-U. S. actions. [REDACTED] predicted Castro will not last more than another four months and that new regime would be set up under leadership [REDACTED] b7C

Memorandum [redacted] to Belmont
Re: FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA
109-12-210

[redacted] voluntarily contacted NYO 8/27/59 and gave details of his experiences in Cuba which were incorporated in letterhead memorandum and disseminated to State, [redacted] military agencies and Department on 10/2/59. However, two items mentioned [redacted] in his WABC broadcast were not referred to by him in his 8/27/59 interview with NYO. In broadcast, [redacted] indicated he had information for a story which would show why an unidentified American was recently murdered in Havana after being engaged in some type of financial deal with Fidel Castro. He did not elaborate. [redacted] made no mention of this episode in his prior interview with NYO. Moreover, in broadcast, [redacted] indicated he had talked with persons who had been with Castro in Mexico during his exile there, and that such persons inferred Castro and his followers committed murder after murder in Mexico with approval [redacted] (possibly referring to [redacted] who has been an avid supporter of Castro).

ACTION:

Attached for your approval is letter to NYO instructing that office to reinterview [redacted] in effort to obtain further details concerning two specific items noted above. New York is being instructed to submit results in form suitable for dissemination and, upon reply from NYO, we will consider dissemination to outside agencies.

For the Bureau's information, the Attorney General, unaccompanied, visited the Miami Office on November 6, 1959, from approximately 4:30 PM to 6:10 PM. He was taken on a tour of the office, met several of our Agents, Clerks, and Stenographers.

The Cuban situation was briefly discussed. He said he attended a conference before he left Washington at which the Director was present, and had been given a good briefing as to the Cuban situation existing here. He was informed there are approximately one hundred thousand Spanish speaking people in Miami, and that INS estimates there are about one thousand Cuban political exiles in Miami. As a consequence of this, there is a great deal of political intrigue and the establishment of Cuban exile organizations.

He was informed that the most recently established of the anti-FIDEL CASTRO organizations in this area is the Accion Cubana Institucionalista, aka., ACI (see Miami report 11/3/59.) The organization was briefly described for him. He was informed that the decision as to what action should be made relative to the radio transmitter which this organization is operating on the Florida Keys is presently pending among interested agencies in Washington, D. C.

The recent leaflet dropping flight over Havana, Cuba, [REDACTED] now in exile, was mentioned. The General said he felt the assignment of one hundred additional Border Patrolmen to cover air fields and ports in the Florida area should materially reduce such flights over Cuba, which had created, in effect, poor relations between the United States and that country. b7C

The fact that [REDACTED] had been released on November 5, 1959, on $5000 bond in connection with efforts of the Cuban Government to effect his extradition to that country was mentioned. The General expressed the personal hope that FIDEL CASTRO would not be successful in his efforts to accomplish this, and that the Judge would dismiss the proceedings as being politically inspired. b7C

INTERNAL SECURITY

REGISTRATION ACT

As the Bureau was informed by teletype dated November 6, 1959, entitled, [REDACTED] IS - CUBA; RA - CUBA," this person was interviewed between flights at the Miami International Airport, Miami, Florida, while the Attorney General was in the office. It will be recalled [REDACTED] alleged that Cuban members of his organization, Bloque Americano Juvenil Anti-Comunista de Mexico, had kidnapped Major CAMILO CIENFUEGOS and are holding him at present near Havana, and that the organization was endeavoring to obtain the signature of CIENFUEGOS, voluntarily or otherwise, to prepared documents proving Communist infiltration of the Cuban Government. Since the Attorney General was in the office when this information was brought to my attention, he was informed of it. b7C

It was my feeling the Attorney General was very well pleased with the manner in which the Bureau has been staying abreast of the situation relating to Cuba and made several passing remarks to this effect. He obviously has a very high regard for the Bureau.

The following is a newspaper article which appeared in the "El Imparcial," San Juan daily Spanish language newspaper on 11/4/59:

"FIDEL CASTRO SAYS:

"PR HAS THE RIGHT TO BE A FREE COUNTRY

"San Juan - Trying to find the reasons which the United States might have had - if they had any - to allow planes to leave from its territory to attack Cuba, Dr. FIDEL CASTRO, Cuba's Prime Minister, referred to Puerto Rico, by saying that 'it also had the right to hope to be one more country among the free countries of Latin America...'

"FIDEL CASTRO's energetic statements were made in front of a gigantic crowd of more than a million Cubans last October 26, to protest against the above mentioned bombing in Cuba which caused 47 victims and the burning of various buildings. This reference to Puerto Rico was received with thundering applause from the crowd.

"FIDEL CASTRO accused the United States authorities of negligence, 'in allowing, with their indifference', that 'traitors of the Cuban Revolution' arm themselves in that country and that the planes which bombed Cuban territory leave from there.

"How is it possible', FIDEL CASTRO asked, ' that the authorities of such a powerful country with such valuable military and economic resources and a radar system which is said to be able to intercept even guided missiles confessed to the world that it is incapable of preventing these 'flivver' planes from leaving its territory to bomb a defenseless country like Cuba?'

"Asking himself the reason for the attack, FIDEL CASTRO made a reference in his speech to Puerto Rico's issue by saying: 'Why do they attack us? Why don't planes leave from the United States to attack the [REDACTED] dictatorship? Why don't planes leave the United States to attack TRUJILLO? Of course, the United States do not have to leave their country to attack here nor any other country; they do not have to go to Santo Domingo nor Nicaragua; because they do not have to go anywhere (applause).

b7C

"But what I ask myself is why they had to pick Cuba? Because there are immigrants from all over the world in the United States, including many immigrants from our neighbor country of Puerto Rico, which also has the right to hope to be one more country among the free countries of Latin America (Applause). And, however, in spite of the fact that there are a great deal of immigrants from many countries, Cuba is the only country; Cuba is, by the way, the country to which planes with immigrants come to attack the population.'

"Further on, the Cuban Prime Minister added: 'Why? Why precisely Cuba? If there is any country which the United States should be careful with; if there is any country which the United States should have been preoccupied with so that these things would not have happened; that country was precisely Cuba; because Cuba just went through a two-year war in which its cities and suburbs were bombed with North American bombs, with North American planes, with North American jets, with North American 'nepalm' and thousands of citizens were murdered with North American arms.

"The least we could have hoped for after we defeated the mercenary Army, after we liberated our country from the tyranny; the least we could have hoped for was that our country where North American bases are located would not continue to be bombed'.

'REASON FOR ATTACK

"Referring to powerful foreign concerns which caused the attacks on Cuba, Dr. FIDEL CASTRO added: 'What motives could there be for Cuba to be attacked? What have we done for them to attack us?' 'This is what the people should ask themselves and this is what the people should think about in order to understand not only that event, but also to understand the connections with this event; in order to understand the problems without and the problems within; in order to understand the aggressions without and the betrayals within'.

"'Because the aggressions from foreign countries, as well as treason, only have one explanation: the reason for the aggression and the treason is simply the revolution: the reason is that it is a matter of a revolutionary procedure which injures powerful concerns and the concerns which are affected by this Revolution refuse to accept it quietly'.

"SUPPORT OF THE PEOPLE

" Further on FIDEL CASTRO went on to analyze the work of the Government, pointing out the cause for ~~the~~ foreign disgust:

"I ask the people if they agree or not with the fact that we have established an absolutely honest administration which the history of our country had never seen. I ask the people if they agree or not that the Revolutionary Government has put an end to black market...(Cheers). I ask the people if they agree or not that the Revolutionary Government has put a stop to sinecures in public administration (cheers).. I ask the people if they agree or not that the Revolutionary Government has wiped out gambling from the country...(cheers). I ask the people if they agree or not that the Revolutionary Government has turned the Bureau of Investigations into a park and the Military city into a Study Center which the people need so much...(cheers). I ask the people if they agree or not with the Government turning the Regiments into city schools...(Cheers). I ask the people if they agree or not with the Government reviewing and annulling the concession which the Tyranny had made to the Telephone Company (cheers)... I ask the people if they agree or not with the Revolutionary Government decreasing electrical tariffs...(Cheers). I ask the people if they agree or not with the Revolutionary Government having decreased the price of medicine...(Cheers)".

"Further on, in the midst of thundering shouts of approval, Dr. FIDEL CASTRO referred to the measures taken by the Government concerning the creation of 10,000 positions for teachers; the creation of a National Institute of Savings and Housing; 10,000 new houses; a Social Security Bank; the establishment of labor unions; the decrease in rents and the Agrarian Reforms.

"CUBAN MEASURES

"Further on, when he pointed out the enemies of the regime, above all, the reactionary press of the United States which accused some of his government officials of being Communists, FIDEL CASTRO sketched a nationalist and democratic theory, by saying:

SJ 109-27

"I have shown that the measures taken are truly Cuban measures, benefiting Cubans and that it is not Cuban concerns which oppose the Revolutionary laws (Applause). But I go further: who are the ones carrying on this Revolution? Who are the people who have spoken here? While I heard the Rebel Commandants on this speaker's stand: CAMILO CIENFUEGOS.

and other colleagues, I remembered those first days of the Revolution in the Sierra Maestra; I remembered those difficult days when only a small group maintained firm; I remember those cold and hungry days, without a raincoat to guard us from the rain; without an overcoat to endure the cold air of the mountains; without bullets in our rifles; pursued by a great number of soldiers; I remember those days when the Revolution could have been defeated because of our weak condition, because of our small number..."

Subject: FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA

This will confirm information orally furnished to Department of State;

Department of the Navy; , The Joint Staff; Department of the Air Force; and Department of the Army, by of this Bureau on November 10, 1959.

On November 9, 1959, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past and who is familiar with anti-Castro activities in Mexico City advised he had learned from Cuba that a group of approximately fifty Cubans was in training in a camp outside Havana.

This group is reportedly scheduled to depart shortly for Panama to assist in anti-United States activities there.

For your additional information, another source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on November 10, 1959, that the Cuban Embassy, Mexico City, was apparently distributing a propaganda leaflet in the Spanish language which when translated read as follows: "Americans get out of Cuba. Over a million persons, supported by farm workers and labor unions, demand the immediate abandonment by the U. S. of its military base in Guantanamo, Cuba." The source furnished a copy of the leaflet together with the envelope in which it was reportedly sent. The envelope carries the crest and return address of the Cuban Embassy, Mexico City, and is postmarked October 31, 1959. To date no denial has been reported from the Cuban Embassy that it is the source of the above-mentioned leaflet. The possibility exists that the leaflet has been circulated by anti-Castro sources to embarrass the Cuban Embassy.

Our representative in Havana, Cuba, on November 10, 1959, advised there is a current rumor circulating in Havana to the effect that Camilo Cienfuegos, missing Cuban Army commander, has been beaten by followers [REDACTED] and is a prisoner at Camp Libertad, Havana. Reportedly, Cienfuegos was attacked [REDACTED] because he disagreed with the imprisoning [REDACTED]. Various sources have reported that telephone operators in Camaguey Province, Cuba, are answering calls by stating, "[REDACTED] is not a traitor." The data in this paragraph are known to our Embassy in Havana. b7C

FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA

On November 12, 1959, a confidential informant, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that [REDACTED] furnished the following information to [REDACTED]. It is noted that [REDACTED] is the wife of [REDACTED] to the Organization of American States (OAS), and [REDACTED] wife of [REDACTED]. b7C

According to [REDACTED] to the Organization of American States, had told her husband on the morning of November 12, 1959, that Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro would give a talk on television in Havana, Cuba, on November 12, 1959. It was further reported that Castro would use the occasion to reply to the "first United States note to Cuba" and in addition would make reference to the "latest United States note." b7C

[REDACTED] stated that in connection with the above, [REDACTED] reported that there had been a meeting on the evening of November 11, 1959, between Castro, [REDACTED] and Cuban President Osvaldo Dorticos. According to the informant, [REDACTED] furnished no information concerning any comments to be made by Castro. b7C

CAMILLO CIENFUEGOS GONZALEZ IS - CUBA

The subject, who is more commonly known as Camilo Cienfuegos, has been missing since October 28, 1958, and is Cuban army commander.

Legat, Havana, on November 10, 1959, advised there is a rumor currently circulating in Havana to the effect that the subject has been beaten by followers [redacted] and is now a prisoner at Camp Libertad, Havana. Reportedly, Cienfuegos was attacked [redacted] because he disagreed with Castro's imprisonment [redacted] Castro's forces in Camaguey Province, Cuba. (It is noted Fidel Castro on October 21, 1958, arrested [redacted] for [redacted] after [redacted] resigned, reportedly in protest against land reforms and rising communist influence in the Castro regime.) Legat, Havana, also learned that telephone operators in Camaguey Province are answering their telephones by stating [redacted] is not a traitor."

RECOMMENDATION:

That this memorandum be routed to Mr. DeLoach for his possible use.

FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA

On August 8, 1959, the Cuban Government began arresting on a wholesale basis persons believed to be involved in a counter-revolutionary plot. The plot involved [REDACTED] the Second National Front of Escambray, and [REDACTED] soldier of fortune who was connected with that organization. Over the weekend of August 8 - 9, 1959, rumors were circulated concerning possible invasion landings on the Isle of Pines, in Oriente Province and in Las Villas Province, Cuba. On August 10, 1959, the Havana press announced the arrests of various leaders of the Cattlemen's Association of Cuba for having been involved in the plot. b7C

On August 17, 1959, Fidel Castro, Prime Minister of Cuba, explained that the counterrevolutionaries had believed [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] actually were planning the overthrow of the Government but that all the while both of these individuals had remained loyal to Castro and kept him informed of the plans of the counterrevolutionaries. Although Castro tried to make it appear that a great counterrevolution had been smashed, it became obvious that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] counterrevolutionaries in Miami, Florida, and the Dominican Republic, respectively, had not fallen into the trap. Castro flatly accused the Dominican Republic of aggression against Cuba and claimed that Trujillo was the chief conspirator. b7C

Some sources have expressed the belief that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] at first actually did intend to carry through on the plot to overthrow Castro but when their plans became known to Castro, they claimed they were pro-Castro all the time and were merely trying to entrap anti-Castro forces. b7C

Cuban Government authorities publicly acknowledge that there is a small group of counterrevolutionaries operating in Pinar del Rio Province. One source who has furnished reliable information in the past has indicated that persons who were associated with the terroristic section of the July 26 Movement (Castro's movement) in Havana during the Batista days are now meeting regularly for the purpose of formulating plans to overthrow the Castro regime. Another source has advised that some members of the armed forces are discontented and would be willing to engage in counterrevolutionary activities if they felt such activities might be successful. In this connection it is noted that the press on October 21, 1959, reported the arrest of [redacted] the Castro forces in Camaguey Province, on the charge of plotting against the Government. The continued anti-Castro activity in Cuba is demonstrated by the fact that on October 21, 1959, planes dropped anti-Castro handbills in various parts of Havana. These handbills were described as manifestos against the Castro government signed [redacted]. Other sources who formerly believed in active counterrevolutionary measures now feel that the Castro regime will collapse of its own weight due to poor economic conditions. b7

Several reports have been received that labor conditions in Cuba are in an almost chaotic state. The operator of a large construction firm has stated that because of the unsettled labor conditions his organization will not accept any contracts except on a cost plus basis. Because of the unstable political and economic atmosphere foreign investors have shown great hesitancy in investing in Cuba since the overthrow of Batista. It is noted, however, that [redacted] and [redacted] and other United States hoodlums continue to operate casinos in various Cuban establishments. The casinos generally report heavy losses due to poor tourist business. b-

[redacted] of the Cuban armed forces, has announced that the Cuban Army will reduce its forces from 38,000 men to 15,000 men. It has been reported that the Cuban Air Force has become an almost inoperative organization due to the lack of skilled pilots and mechanics. Several reports have been received that discipline in all of the armed forces, with the possible exception of the Navy, is in a very poor state. This may be due to the fact that the Castro government from the beginning took the attitude that all men in the armed forces were treated equally. This attitude has led to a deterioration of discipline so that the average soldier in many instances will refuse to obey an officer's command. A source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that the Government contemplates unification of the armed forces and that the National Police will come under the unified plan. 11 ✓ b7c

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past has advised that discipline in the Cuban police forces is extremely poor and it is almost impossible to have any simple order fully and correctly executed. Incompetence and lack of trained personnel in the Cuban police force extend down through the ranks of stenographers and clerks. With the breakdown of the police force has come, of course, the consequent increase in crime.

The Cuban diplomatic service is undergoing a complete reorganization. Reports have been received that old-time members of the corps will be relieved of their positions. It is noted the present Chief of Protocol is a 22-year-old youth. With regard to international relations, the "Havana Post" on September 23, 1959, reported that Cuba was the only Latin-American nation which abstained from voting at the United Nations for a delay of discussion concerning the admission of Red China. It is to be noted that at a function given by the Chinese Ambassador to Cuba who represents the Nationalist Government which was commemorating the founding of the Chinese Republic, no prominent officials of the Cuban Government appeared. A few days previously the Chinese Ambassador had leveled a blistering attack against communism.

The Partido Socialista Popular (Communist Party of Cuba) and the Juventud Socialista (Communist Youth of Cuba) through their official publication "Hoy" and the magazine "Mella," respectively, continue to give tremendous lip service and approval to Castro's government. With regard to this support, reliable observers claim Castro is finding himself in a precarious position. If he recognizes such support, the opposition could utilize it as proof of ties with the Communist Party and thus create an embarrassing situation.

RE: INTELLIGENCE SURVEY - CUBA

FAILURE OF COUNTERREVOLUTIONARY PLOT

Beginning on August 8, 1959, the Cuban Government began arresting on a wholesale basis persons who, it believed, were involved in a counterrevolutionary plot. The plot revolved around the personages [REDACTED] the Second National Front of Escambray, and [REDACTED] national who was a major connected with that organization. Over the week-end of August 8-9, 1959, many rumors were heard concerning possible invasion landings on the Isle of Pines, in Oriente Province, and in Las Villas Province, Cuba. On Monday, August 10, 1959, Havana newspapers announced the arrests of various leaders of the Cattlemen's Association of Cuba for having been involved in a plot with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] to overthrow the Castro Government. Legat had previously been informed of this plot by various individuals. (Sources - [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] information disseminated to Embassy and [REDACTED])

Tension built up, and rumors began to circulate throughout Havana when FIDEL CASTRO delayed in appearing before his television audience to explain the details of these counterrevolutionary activities. By August 10, 1959, it was estimated that approximately

1,000 persons had been arrested. Some overt action took place when FIDEL CASTRO's house on the outskirts of Havana was machine-gunned; however, by August 10 it was apparent that the police and military forces in the City of Havana were at ease and were not expecting great trouble. This was evidenced by the fact that at 6:30 in the evening on the waterfront avenue, the [REDACTED] Legal Attache observed the Chief of the National Police with two of his aides nonchalantly firing machine guns from the rampart along the waterfront into the ocean. This occurred at a time when this particular avenue is one of the most heavily traveled in the City of Havana. The nonchalance of these leaders of the revolution gave rise to the belief that they had everything under control. b7C

Rumors, however, continued to circulate until the "Great Leader" FIDEL CASTRO finally made his television appearance on August 17, 1959. At that time he explained how the counterrevolutionaries had believed that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] [REDACTED] actually were planning to overthrow the Government of Cuba. Although FIDEL CASTRO, in his five-hour television recital, tried to make it appear that they had smashed a great counterrevolution, it became obvious that the main ones the government was hoping to catch in its net had escaped, namely [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] the former one of the leaders of the counterrevolutionary movement in Miami and the latter the leader of counterrevolutionary forces in the [REDACTED] b7C

Dominican Republic. True, the Government authorities did entrap several "Batistianos" when they arrived by plane from the Dominican Republic at Cienfuegos, Cuba. They had been duped into coming through radio communications with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] b7C who claimed the revolution had started and they had the City of Cienfuegos under control.

CASTRO flatly accused the Dominican Republic of aggression against Cuba and claimed that Trujillo was the chief conspirator. This ability to entrap agents of Trujillo in such a conspiracy against Cuba came at a most opportune time for the Cuban Government. On the international scene the Organization of American States was due to meet in Santiago, Chile, and one of the principal topics of conversation was unrest in the Caribbean. It was expected that the Dominican Republic would allege that Cuba had sent invasions to the Dominican Republic to attempt to overthrow that government.

Why individuals of prominence should be entrapped in a counterrevolutionary plot by such individuals as [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] is easy to understand.

Shortly after the revolution, it became public knowledge that the members of the Second National Front of Escambray were disgruntled at not having received what they considered the "fruits of war." In March, 1959, [REDACTED] publicly proclaimed his anti-Communist stand. Various sources have stated it is their belief that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] at first actually did b7C intend to carry through on a plot to overthrow the Castro regime but that, when their plans became known to Castro, they merely claimed that they were pre-Castro all the time and were merely trying to entrap anti-Castro forces.

Although Castro smashed the counterrevolutionary plot, there has been some feeling of resentment on the part of a certain segment of the Cuban people as to the manner in which this was accomplished. They feel that Castro used foreign agents to entrap Cuban people. Henceforth, counterrevolutionaries will be less inclined to talk concerning their plans and will be more inclined to take a discreet and security-conscious attitude concerning their plots against the regime.

PRESENT COUNTERREVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENTS

At the present time the Government authorities publicly acknowledge that there is a small group of counterrevolutionaries actively attacking government forces in Pinar del Rio Province. Newspapers have announced numerous arrests in that province of persons who reportedly are helping supply these enemies of the revolution. At the end of September, the Government announced the arrest of two [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] who had been accused of aiding these insurgents in Pinar del Rio. [REDACTED] had recently been released from prison for counterrevolutionary activities after being detained for approximately five months by Cuban authorities. [REDACTED] claims he was merely a photographer who had gone to the Pinar del Rio hills in order to take photographs of the insurgents. Both [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] are being held on charges of homicide.

That there are counterrevolutionary movements afoot has been further evidenced by the continual announcement in the press of the arrests of small groups of persons who, the government claims, had been plotting a revolution.

Information has been received by Legal Attache that persons who had been associated with the terroristic section of the July 26 Movement in Havana during the Batista days are now meeting regularly. One source has stated that such meetings are being held for the purpose of formulating plans to overthrow the Castro regime. The [REDACTED] this group is [REDACTED] (Sources - [REDACTED] (PROTECT) and [REDACTED] SA [REDACTED] as well as [REDACTED] [REDACTED] all of whom have furnished reliable information in the past. Various sources have advised that it is believed that some counterrevolutionary terroristic action might take place during the time representatives of the American Society of Travel Agents (ASTA) have meetings in Havana from October 17-24, 1959. These sources, although they claim they have no actual knowledge that any counterrevolutionary activities will take place, state that

From interviews with various discontented elements in Cuba at the present time Legal Attache believes there is no cohesive counterrevolutionary group. The August 8, 1959, round-up of counterrevolutionaries which was actually caused by entrapment by the Cuban Government, has put a damper on the ardor of some counterrevolutionaries. These elements believe that, inasmuch as economic conditions are deteriorating, soon the people will become discouraged with the Castro regime and that it will not be necessary for them to take any overt counterrevolutionary action to oust FIDEL CASTRO. They also have expressed their belief that because of the wide-spread use of "Chivatos" (stool pigeons) by the present government, any counterrevolutionary movement might become readily infiltrated by Castro agents.

The fact that the present government is making wide-spread use of "stool pigeons" has been verified by information received from various police officers in the present government and by persons who have contacts with the Cuban Government officials. On October 13, 1959, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] DIER and a prominent revolutionary in the underground prior to the fall of Batista, advised that various members of the present armed forces and police forces are discontented with the economic and ideological policy of the Castro Government. According to this source, some of the Ministers, including [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] know of this widespread discontent but state that now is not the time to take any serious, overt action against the Government. b7C

They claim that FIDEL CASTRO, himself, realizes that many persons are discontent with the role played [REDACTED] and by ERNESTO "CHE" GUEVARA and that he intends to correct this situation before the first of January, 1960. The fact that FIDEL CASTRO will take any action against [REDACTED] or "CHE" GUEVARA is doubted. CASTRO has on numerous occasions shown that he can be manipulated by GUEVARA and [REDACTED] and that, although at first he may disagree with some of their policies and theories, he eventually follows their advice. b7C

ERNESTO "CHE" GUEVARA

The Argentine-Cuban bewhiskered, frail revolutionary, ERNESTO "CHE" GUEVARA, returned to Havana, Cuba, from his trip to the Afro-Asian countries in the early part of September, 1959. He immediately made his presence known by a show of strength in which he publicly attacked some of the policies of the Instituto Nacional de Reforma Agraria (National Institute of Agrarian Reform) (INRA), which is FIDEL CASTRO's pet project. This organization, b7C which has its tentacles throughout all ramifications of Cuban economic life, has become the headquarters for "CHE" GUEVARA who reportedly is heading up the industrial section of this organization. The industrialization of Cuba, of course, is one of the principal themes of the present Revolutionary Government.

LABOR CONDITIONS

Various sources have advised that labor conditions are in almost a chaotic state inasmuch as labor is making almost prohibitive demands on various sections of industry, and the Minister of Labor almost always gives into such demands without ascertaining previously whether the industry involved is financially able to meet such requests. The operator of a large construction concern has stated that because of the unsettled labor conditions his organization will not accept any contracts unless on a cost plus basis. bFREEDOM OF PRESS

The question of freedom of the press in Cuba at the present time is a very touchy one. Until a few weeks ago, very few of the Cuban periodicals ever dared to raise a voice in criticism of any of the Revolutionary Government's actions. "Diario de la Marina", prominent conservative Havana newspaper, recently attacked the economic policies of the Castro regime when large surtaxes were placed on luxury items. This newspaper came in for a bitter attack by FIDEL CASTRO in a television program in which he called the editors almost counterrevolutionaries in spirit. Other newspapermen who received a tongue-lashing from the Prime Minister were writers for the Havana daily newspaper "Avance." With stunning surprise these two newspapers lashed back and claimed that Castro by public denouncements and the incitement to mob appeal was, in fact, curtailing the freedom of the press. The amazing thing was that the people evidently are being somewhat annoyed with CASTRO's antics as these two newspapers immediately greatly increased their circulation. The Government newspapers attempted to come to CASTRO's defense but their arguments proved too weak and vacillating.

the Freedom of the Press Committee of the International Press Society, was one of the first who gave favorable publicity to FIDEL CASTRO in his fight against Batista. He was considered, as of January 1, 1959, one of the heroes of the revolution. His popularity, however, in the eyes of the Cuban Government rapidly diminished when he began to call attention to what he considered to be errors in Cuban policies. He has attacked Communist infiltration of the Cuban Government and the high-handed tactics of FIDEL CASTRO in the operation of the government. Government controlled papers openly attacked him, calling him a counterrevolutionary. On visiting Havana in early September, 1959, he was greeted by a show of antagonism on the part of members of the hotel and restaurant workers union. They refused to serve him meals, and it was necessary for the assistant manager of the hotel where [REDACTED] b7C was residing to operate the elevator to take him to his room. Although some government papers issued mild statements against such actions on the part of the workers, no actual strong stand was taken by government officials to alleviate this condition.

ECONOMIC CONDITIONS

Cuba has officially recognized that the U. S. dollar shortage is beginning to hurt. In September it passed a law by which it hoped to stop the flow of U. S. dollars from the country. Large import taxes were placed on luxury items and even on food-stuffs. Among the items affected were baby foods, washing machines, electrical appliances, and automobiles, some being taxed as much

The Government has placed an almost complete ban on any industry dismissing any employee. As an example, the Hotel Havana Riviera, a plush establishment in the City of Havana owned completely by American capital (some hoodlum), has a total staff of 650 with an average daily guest list of 80. Although the hotel is losing approximately $200,000 per month, no layoffs are permitted by the Ministry of Labor. The Government has been loaning money to the hotel for the payment of salaries to the workers, but, according to [REDACTED] one of the principal managers of the hotel, Hotel Havana Riviera if this continues, in short time the Government will be the owner of the premises. As [REDACTED] has pointed out, this appears to be legalized confiscation. This is true in other spheres of industry.

b7C

The Cuban Telephone Company and the Cuban Electric Company, both American owned concerns, have both been intervened by the Cuban Government. Wages of the workers have been increased, and the rates charged by these companies have been slashed.

Although the Government has announced grandiose plans for the industrialization of the country, it has little money to carry out these projects. Foreign capital has shown great hesitancy in investing in Cuba since January 1, 1959, due to the unstable political and economic atmosphere.

The Cuban Government has placed stringent restrictions on the conversion of pesos to dollars in order to conserve a dollar reserve.

 the Armed Forces, announced that there would be a drastic cut in the Cuban Army which, he stated, consisted of approximately 38,000 men. He indicated this group would be reduced to a cohesive fighting unit of 15,000. When a chorus of protest was heard, he immediately amended his words to announce that those released from the Army would continue on the Government payroll doing some sort of public work. b7C

After the first of January, 1959, a group of approximately 1,500 Marines were trained and, according to the Naval Attache of the U. S. Consequently, with no trained technicians and also with a number of the airmen themselves having been either dismissed or having defected, the Cuban Air Force is in the hands of untrained personnel. This is evidenced by the fact that weekly papers report the deaths of various airmen when planes which they had been flying crash.

All sources state that the discipline in all the armed forces, with the possible exception of the Navy, is in very poor state. The new Revolutionary Government, in its first days of celebrating victory, took the attitude that all men in the armed forces were equal. This attitude has led to a deterioration of discipline so that the average soldier in many instances will refuse to obey an officer's command. (Source - [REDACTED] formerly of Cuban Air Force) b7C

UNIVERSITY CRISIS

The crisis at the University of ~~Havana~~^{Havana, Cuba}, an autonomous institution, continues. Students in some schools at this University continue to feel that they should have the right to operate the institution. An impasse was reached when some of the more outstanding professors announced their resignations. A group of faculty members and university students requested that the government appoint a fact-finding commission to study the problems of the University. Various sources pointed out that this would lead to the possibility of government intervention in University affairs, a matter which had been jealously guarded until now inasmuch as this University was always very proud of its independent character. Sources also point out the ridiculous nature of requesting government officials, on the whole uneducated or youthful men, to solve the problems of a University where the professors supposedly are the best educators in the land.

The crisis at the University of Havana has led to a more hopeful attitude on the part of authorities at Villanueva University, a private institution operated by American priests who, until now, have been having a difficult time because of government policies.

COMMUNIST ACTIVITY

The Partido Socialista Popular (PSP - Communist Party of Cuba) and the Juventud Socialista (JS - Communist Youth of Cuba) through their official organs "Hoy" and magazine "Mella" respectively continue to give tremendous lip service and approval to the Cuban Revolutionary Government. Each decree which is issued by the Revolutionary Government immediately and automatically receives approval by "Hoy" and "Mella." During the National Plenum of the JS which took place on September 25-27, 1959, at Yaguajay, Las Villas, Cuba, the new five-category import duties imposed by the Revolutionary Government were announced via radio and television. The leaders of the Plenum, without waiting for an official press release, immediately began composing a message of solidarity addressed to Prime Minister FIDEL CASTRO, which expression of solidarity was to appear in "Mella", the official JS organ, which appears once a month. The PSP and JS publications "Hoy" and "Mella" respectively are having their financial difficulties for two reasons: First, members of the foregoing organizations are not meeting their quotas for the support of these publications; second, these publications have not been successful in soliciting more than one or two paid advertisements. "Mella" in September, 1959, inaugurated its own printing press with new machines from Czechoslovakia. These machines have improved the size and the appearance of the publication, which appears once each month. "Hoy" continues as a daily publication with a distribution of about 21,000 copies and 50,000 copies on Sunday. It, like "Mella", is completely devoid of paid advertisements. Although "Hoy" gives full support to the Cuban Revolutionary Government headed by FIDEL CASTRO and defends the regime against the attacks of "Diario de la Marina" and "Avance", two publications which have the support of the smooth-shaven classes of Cuba, at no time has CASTRO in his television appearances expressed his gratitude to "Hoy." Reliable observers claim that CASTRO is finding himself in a precarious position with reference to these matters because, if he should recognize the support of "Hoy", the opposition may utilize this as a proof of ties with the Communist Party and thus may arouse embarrassing, anti-revolutionary activity. EFFECT ON POLICE FORCES

The above-mentioned DIER, which is the investigative arm of G-2 of the Cuban Army, is reported by several police sources as taking over more and more supervisory, and in some cases direct investigative, jurisdiction of the other police.

The Secret Service Police of Cuba was abolished effective Saturday, September 26, 1959. (Source - [REDACTED] No provisions have been made as yet for incorporation of its members into any other police organization. It has also been reliably reported that discipline is extremely poor in the Cuban police forces, and it is almost impossible to have any simple order fully and correctly executed. Incompetence and lack of trained personnel extends itself on down into the ranks of stenographers and clerical personnel. For these positions are named employees who have no stenographic ability and no knowledge at all concerning procedures to be employed in files and archives. Of the 180 Oldsmobiles received in first-class condition by the Revolutionary Government, it is now reported that only 10 are in service. Many of the young Revolutionaries named as police officers desire only a car, pistol, and a tank of gasoline and use their position as a policeman to enjoy freedom of action to which they would not otherwise be entitled. No attempt is made to check the antecedents of these officers and consequently the police forces have been infiltrated by those with a previous history of criminal activities. On November 5, 1959, [redacted] a former Cuban Government official residing in Miami, directed a communication to this Bureau.

b7C

[redacted] observed that the plan [redacted] and Ernesto "Che" Guevara, Cuban officials, to launch an attack against the United States has already gone beyond Cuba and that the next objectives of the plan will be carried out in Central America. [redacted] noted that recent events in Panama give some indication of the progress of the plan. [redacted] stated he was convinced that the Cuban people are not communists and do not wish to become communists. He noted that it will take great efforts to convert them to communism. [redacted] opined that United States assistance for those in opposition to Castro is "very weak." He added that he is always ready to give his full cooperation to see that the cordial relations Cuba has maintained with the United States are not broken. [redacted] felt that more than eighty per cent of the Cuban people felt as he did and that they have no desire to become poisoned by international communism.

b7C

[redacted] also stated that on November 5, 1959, he had received information from Cuba [redacted] a plan to bring more than a half million Catholics into the civic plaza of Havana on November 28, 1959, as a demonstration of democratic strength. [redacted] pointed out that the Cuban Government was already taking steps to halt this move and it was possible that the demonstration would not be held.

The above is for your information.

FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS-CUBA. IN THREE HOUR TELEVISION TALK EVENING NOVEMBER 12 LAST, FIDEL CASTRO SUMMARIZED EFFORTS TO LOCATE MISSING MAJOR CAMILO CIENFUEGOS, CONCLUDING HE PROBABLY WAS LOST AT SEA ATTEMPTING TO SKIRT SQUALL BETWEEN CAMAGUEY AND HAVANA. CASTRO CLAIMED RUMORS CIENFUEGOS HAD MISUNDERSTANDING WITH [REDACTED] CHE [REDACTED] GUEVARA WERE NOT TRUE AND THEY HAD ALWAYS BEEN FRIENDLY. HIS ATTACK ON UNITED STATES CENTERED ON FOLLOWING: 1. THERE IS WELL DIRECTED CAMPAIGN IN UNITED STATES AGAINST CUBA, HANDLED BY UNFRIENDLY PRESS, BEHIND WHICH ARE CUBAN WAR CRIMINALS WHO FLED TO OPEN ARMS OF UNITED STATES; 2. NAZI AND JAPANESE WAR CRIMINALS TRIED AND HANGED BY UNITED STATES WERE NO MORE GUILTY THAN THOSE WHO BOMBED CUBA; 3. MEETINGS OF WAR CRIMINALS, LIES ABOUT CUBA, AND SELECTION OF SUPPOSED PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES IN EXILE, ARE RELATIVELY UNIMPORTANT BUT BOMBING OF DEFENSELESS CUBAN PEOPLE BY PLANES FROM UNITED STATES BASES IS IMPORTANT; 4. IF UNITED STATES COOPERATING IN ATTEMPT TO CONTROL CUBAN WAR CRIMINALS AND FLIGHTS, IT WAS STRANGE FBI AND NUMEROUS POLICE AGENCIES UNABLE TO FIND PLANE [REDACTED] WHICH BOHEMIA MAGAZINE REPORTED FOUND IN 24 HOURS; 5. THREATS OF ECONOMIC REPRISALS, PLOTS, AND OPPOSITION OF BIG MONIED INTERESTS (UTILITIES AND LANDED ESTATES) WILL NOT DEFEAT CUBAN REVOLUTIONARY AIMS; 6. November 14, 1959. b7C

A confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised on November 13, 1959, that [redacted] New York City, was contacted by one [redacted] of Havana, Cuba, on November 13, 1959. The source advised that [redacted] told [redacted] that the "American note and answer" is presently in the diplomatic pouch and being brought to New York. [redacted] told he wanted it to appear in "The New York Times" on November 14, 1959, as either information or a paid page. [redacted] told [redacted] that he would like to have it appear in "Look" magazine for wide publication. [redacted] stated he would try to have [redacted] publish it in tomorrow's "Times." [redacted] advised that the note is very detailed and speaks of American-Cuban relations and that it has been translated into English.
[redacted] assured [redacted] he would handle the contact with "Look" magazine. The source subsequently learned that [redacted] arranged an appointment to see [redacted] of "Look" magazine, on November 13, 1959, for the purpose of placing an advertisement of "urgent importance" in a magazine with national distribution. b7C

It is to be noted that [redacted] is a

FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS - CUBA

On November 15, 1959, a confidential informant, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that [redacted] told [redacted]

[redacted] on November 14, 1959. When [redacted] indicated that he had desired to get as far away from Cuba as possible. bu

According to the informant, [redacted] stated that he was confronted with a problem relating to "the hotel" (not further identified) in Cuba. [redacted] does not intend to put any more money into the hotel and at the moment the hotel is $50,000 to $70,000 in debt. [redacted] continued by saying that publicity concerning Cuba in the New York papers has been "so lousy" that he feels no tourists will go to Cuba this winter. bu

The informant advised that [redacted] desired to go to Cuba in January, 1960, but feels that the creditors of the hotel would "clamp down" and close the hotel.

[redacted] (not further identified) he is afraid that he might be imprisoned until the debts are paid. Informant indicated that [redacted] assured [redacted] that he would not be imprisoned since there is no imprisonment in Cuba for indebtedness. [redacted] felt certain that [redacted] would not be detained in Cuba but admitted that he, [redacted], might not be aware of recent changes in Cuban law. The informant stated that [redacted] indicated that this was the point since the laws in Cuba change "every hour." Prior to a trip to Cuba, [redacted] suggested that [redacted] might desire to contact attorneys in Havana for an analysis of the situation. bu

██████████ indicated that he desired ██████████ opinion in these matters and desired ██████████ to consider whether ██████████ should close the hotel and not go any deeper into debt. When ██████████ agreed that this would be desirable, ██████████ commented that a new law imposed by Prime Minister Fidel Castro indicates that an owner cannot close a hotel and would be liable to a jail term if he tried. ██████████ indicated that in the event he decided to close the hotel he desired to assist ██████████ (not further identified) in leaving Cuba to avoid trouble for ██████████. When ██████████ suggested that ██████████ turn the hotel over to the employees, ██████████ stated that the employees would be unable to carry the business. (u)

Legat, Havana, by cable 11-13-59, summarized Fidel Castro's television talk 11-12-59. Castro, among other things, stated it was strange the FBI and numerous police agencies were unable to find the plane [REDACTED] which a "Bohemia" magazine reporter found in 24 hours. The Director asked, "What does this refer to? H."

This refers to the B-25 plane used [REDACTED] and his associates in dropping leaflets over Havana on 10-21-59. The facts are these:

On the morning of 10-22-59 Miami learned from a potential criminal informant that a B-25 [REDACTED] departed Ramert Warner Airport, Pompano, Florida, at 5 p.m., 10-21-59 and returned at 9 p.m., the same date. On the same morning [REDACTED] was interviewed by agents of our Miami Office. [REDACTED] stated the B-25, leaving Pompano at 4 p.m., 10-21-59; arrived over Havana at 5:20 p.m.; departed Havana at 5:30 p.m.; and then returned to Pompano.

We had no difficulty in locating the plane. As can be seen we knew about plane the following day and in fact Miami agents examined the plane on 10-25-59 to resolve question of whether plane armed and whether bombs could have been dropped.

On 11-10-59 our Miami Office made available a copy of a 16-page brochure dealing with the leaflet-dropping raid over Havana. It was implied in this brochure that a United States-based plane had machine gunned and bombed Havana. The brochure was published by the Cuban Government, is known to the Department of State, and has received considerable press notice. Contained in this brochure is a photograph of the B-25 utilized [REDACTED] with the statement that the Cuban magazine "Bohemia" had located it at Pompano.

The statement made by Castro that the FBI was unable to find [REDACTED] plane is incorrect.

The above is for the information of the Director.

On November 9, 1959, a confidential informant, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised [redacted] and [redacted] to the Organization of American States (OAS), discussed a note delivered to the Government of Cuba by the United States Department of State on November 9, 1959, concerning a pamphlet circulated in the United States which related to the dropping of leaflets recently over Havana. [redacted] stated that the note was strongly worded and felt that if things continued as they have in the recent past, diplomatic relations between the United States and Cuba will be broken. (S) (u)

[redacted] advised that [redacted] United Press International, had requested from [redacted] a statement concerning the above pamphlets and during the conversation had indicated to [redacted] that the relations between the two countries were very bad. [redacted] felt that a mediator was needed and had mentioned [redacted] (possibly [redacted], OAS) as a possibility. Both [redacted] and [redacted] termed the pamphlet incident as "unfortunate" and felt that the pamphlet was meant to influence public opinion in the United States. [redacted] commented that no one in the United States believed that there was a bombardment of Havana and when this pamphlet is seen persons think that the Government of Cuba is publishing fabrications. (S) (u)

On November 10, 1959, the informant learned that [redacted], had discussed the above United States note with his wife and indicated that [redacted] and [redacted] had conferred extensively on the morning of November 10, 1959, concerning the note. [redacted] indicated that the United States note of November 9, 1959, was much more critical than had been indicated in various press reports. (S) (u)

[redacted] stated that the relations between the United States and the Cuban Government are so critical, that it might result in a break of diplomatic relations on [redacted] (S) (u)

November 10, 1959. [REDACTED] stated that there was a feeling in the Cuban Embassy that the above note would not be acceptable to Cuba and the Cuban Government might respond violently. (S) (u) b7C

[REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] is expected to advise Havana of his opinion concerning what the official Cuban reaction should be; however, he and others at the Cuban Embassy fear that there cannot be sufficient compromise between the United States and Cuba to avoid a break in relations. He noted that Cuba was expected to deliver a note of protest to the American Embassy in Havana on November 10, 1959, and did not feel that this would help matters. (S) (u) b7C

"White Rose"

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
DATE 3-16-00 BY 60267 US/SP/SPK

[redacted] on November 9, 1959, advised that information had been received from members of the "White Rose", who are in Cuba, to the effect that the Cuban Government of Fidel Castro, at the present time, is planning to create a provocation either through the workers, farmers or young people at the Guantanamo Naval Base in order to have someone killed at the base and create problems for the United States Government.

b2/b7D

[redacted] stated that the "White Rose" will have a press conference at 4:00 p.m. on November 10, 1959, at the Advertising Club of New York, Park Avenue and 35th Street, New York City. The informant stated that this news conference was for all newspapers, television, radio and news services, and at this conference, it would be announced that [redacted] would be announced as the selection of the "White Rose" as [redacted] when Fidel Castro, the Prime Minister, is overthrown.

b2/b7D
b7C

[redacted] stated that [redacted] is a world renowned scientist who has been attached to New York University for eight years and who, at the present time is working at Columbia University in New York City under a grant given by the National Institute of Health of the United States Government. The informant stated that [redacted] was born in the interior of Cuba toward the beginning of the 20th Century, that he comes from a poor family, and is one of the two best known scientists produced by Cuba. [redacted] stated that [redacted] has accepted this position as [redacted] because he feels that Cuba is being destroyed by Fidel Castro economically and also by Communism within the Government.

FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTERS-CUBA

On November 17, 1959, a confidential informant, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that [REDACTED] made the following comments concerning the internal situation of Cuba while discussing Cuba's desire to purchase ships for the navy of that country. (u) b7C

The informant stated that [REDACTED] said that in view of the present situation in Cuba, it is entirely impractical to think that any action will be taken in connection with the purchase of ships for the Cuban Navy. [REDACTED] stated that it is very apparent that nothing is being done at the present time concerning the acquisition of ships and the Cuban Navy headquarters is not even communicating with the Cuban Naval Attache's Office in Washington, D. C., on routine administrative matters. [REDACTED] added that it appears that almost everything has been dropped in favor of giving full attention to the precarious situation in Cuba. (u) b7C

NOTE:

[REDACTED] who has volunteered considerable data re Cuban situation and who claims to be closely acquainted with anti-Castro elements, has written letter to NY from Miami. In letter, [REDACTED] alleged unidentified member of anti-Castro underground in Cuba met last week with [REDACTED] anti-Castro group in U.S., and supposedly indicated Cuban underground was ready to move against Castro and that they would kill U.S. Ambassador to Cuba, Bonsal, and bomb U.S. Embassy in Havana since they feel U.S. has betrayed Cubans by helping Batista in past and refusing to assist in overthrow of Castro. [REDACTED] supposedly has also received information that former Batista followers planned attack on Cuba about 11-15-59 under command of a British officer, [REDACTED], who has been paid $250,000. Supposedly, British authorities either approved this plan or at least have promised no interference. Attacking forces supposedly will use base at San Salvador Island in Bahamas. By cable 11/17/59 we instructed Legat, Havana, to advise U. S. Embassy and by cable 11/17/59 we told Legat, London, [REDACTED]. We also furnished information by letter dated 11/17/59 to State, [REDACTED] Department and military agencies. Miami has previously interviewed both [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] is Cuban exile who is [REDACTED] anti-Castro group known as Crusade of Revolutionaries Against Communism. [REDACTED] is [REDACTED] and Batista follower who is now in exile in Florida. Teletype being used in view of gravity of allegations and urgency of Cuban situation.

As reflected in myairtel and letterhead memo, dated 12/8/59, and captioned "CRASH OF NATIONAL AIRLINES PLANE EN ROUTE MIAMI TO NEW ORLEANS, 11/16/59," [REDACTED] indicated that he received a call from Havana, Cuba, from [REDACTED] advising, a couple of weeks before this crash, that [REDACTED] who perished in the crash, would be in the U.S. and would furnish [REDACTED] with some confidential information. [REDACTED] stated he intended to go to Cuba in December, 1959, and would contact [REDACTED] in an effort to determine the nature of the confidential information that was supposed to have been delivered to him [REDACTED] b7C/D

[REDACTED] indicated to the interviewing Agent that he would be glad to be of whatever assistance he could to the FBI. b7C/D
WFO indices are negative re [REDACTED]

Regarding [REDACTED] WFO indices indicate that on 2/18/59, [REDACTED] advised that a [REDACTED] the Silver Creek Precision Co., NY, N.Y., furnished information to [REDACTED] in WDC, that the President of his company had recently visited Cuba for the purpose of selling a metal working plant to the Cubans. While there they were escorted by one [REDACTED], who said he was appointed for such purposes by former Cuban President URRUTIA. According to the informant, [REDACTED] apparently doubted [REDACTED] credentials and wanted to know if [REDACTED] could testify to [REDACTED] position. [REDACTED] indicated that [REDACTED] had not been notified to him and suggested that [REDACTED] check with [REDACTED] himself, or with other sources in Cuba. (S) b1 b7C/D

WFO indices also reflect that a [REDACTED] was the subject of an AEA-A investigation in 1949, (WFO file [REDACTED]). He was born on [REDACTED], at [REDACTED], and attended the Naval Academy. He was on active duty with the U.S. Navy as of 1/21/49, as a Commander. There was no derogatory information in WFO file [REDACTED]. Re: Foreign Political Matters - Cuba

Rionda Company, 106 Wall Street, New York City, advised on November 17, 1959 that he returned from Havana, Cuba and Houston, Texas on November 16, 1959. [REDACTED] stated that he went to Cuba on business for the Francisco and Manati Sugar Companies which were recently intervened by the Cuban government.

██████████ advised that the internal situation within Cuba is deteriorating rapidly and that it appears that the government of Fidel Castro, Prime Minister, is doomed to defeat. ██████████ stated that on all Cubana flights within the island, two or three Cuban soldiers ride the plane and constantly are on the alert for any incident or attempt to steal a plane on the part of people opposed to the Castro government.

[redacted] advised that he spent most of his time in Camaguey Province where the Francisco Sugar Company and their ranch, "El Indio", are located. [redacted] stated that the disenchantment of the people with the Castro government is spreading rapidly and that even the peasants are becoming disillusioned with Castro's promises. [redacted] advised that from talking to various people on the Francisco property he ascertained that the number of arrests was incredible throughout the Province of Camaguey. He stated that some of the people arrested are being released but that the greater majority of people are never seen again. [redacted] also stated that from talking to various people in Camaguey Province regarding the disappearance of Camilo Cienfuegos, you get many versions of the story. [redacted] stated that the people are of the general opinion that Camilo Cienfuegos had been shot upon the orders [redacted]

██████████ also advised that during his stay in Havana he resided at the Nacional Hotel and had engaged the manager of the hotel in conversation, who told him that by January 1, 1960 probably all hotels in Havana would be closed with the possible exception of the Nacional. ██████████ advised that while he was at the Nacional Hotel, the third, fourth, fifth and sixth floors of the hotel were closed and were only using the second, seventh, eighth and ninth floors. ██████████ stated that there is no tourist trade in Cuba at the present time, which has greatly affected the Cuban economy.

[redacted] also stated that although it did not happen to him, it did happen to other members of the Francisco Sugar Company, that when they made a telephone call within the island the operator, when answering the call, would begin her conversation by saying, "[redacted] is not a traitor". [redacted] stated that this was significant to many people and in a way revealed the inner feeling of the general population toward recent events which have taken place in Cuba. b7C

[redacted] at the University of Havana, who is now residing in New York City, N.Y., advised that he spoke to several individuals who recently arrived from Havana, Cuba. [redacted] stated that he ascertained that over the week-end of November 15, 1959, at the University of Havana, the students hung a sign which read, "Fidel, ask [redacted] what happened to Camilo". [redacted] further stated that these individuals with whom he spoke also told him there was much dissension and strife within the rebel forces over the arrest [redacted] and the disappearance of Camilo Cienfuegos. Re: Foreign Political Matters - Cuba

On November 18, 1959, [REDACTED] advised that he had received information that a new section of the Cuban Foreign Service had been established and is known as the Auxiliary of the Foreign Service. [REDACTED] stated that individuals in the Auxiliary of the Foreign Service are persons who have neither the experience nor the requirements for Consular Service and are sent to foreign consulates for training, are given diplomatic passports and enjoy diplomatic immunity. 8(4)

b2/b7D

On November 20, 1959, [REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED] in New York City, had been in contact with one [REDACTED] Havana, Cuba. According to the informant, [REDACTED] told [REDACTED] he had received notice that [REDACTED] had been appointed Third Auxiliary to the Cuban Consulate in New York City. [REDACTED] also told [REDACTED] that [REDACTED] had directed him ([REDACTED]) to report to Havana, Cuba as soon as possible. [REDACTED] advised [REDACTED] that he intended to place the responsibility of the Cuban Consulate in New York City in the hands [REDACTED] (also [REDACTED] in New York City) and then [REDACTED] could turn the consulate over to [REDACTED] successor when he arrived. 8(4)

Re: Airtel, 11/10/59. ON 3-16-00

Enclosed herewith for the information of the Bureau are 14 copies of a letterhead memorandum setting forth information regarding above-captioned matter.

The Bureau may wish to disseminate one copy of enclosed memorandum to Legat Havana.

One information copy is designated for Miami, inasmuch as referenced Buairtel was also directed to Miami.

[REDACTED] was contacted by SA [REDACTED] late in the evening of 11/11/59. [REDACTED] stated he is checking his sources concerning rumors of possible anti-CASTRO uprising in Cuba, and he assures the NYO he will furnish any details he develops. He expects to have information from his contacts by 11/13 or 14/59. (S)(u)

Contact will be maintained with [REDACTED] and any information developed will be expeditiously furnished to the Bureau. (S)(u)

ON 6/3/16

TO: [REDACTED] FROM: [REDACTED]

On November 11, 1959, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] anti-Fidel Castro organization known as the white rose, advised that the white rose is not initiating or contemplating any anti-Fidel Castro uprising in Cuba as of this moment. He said he has heard rumors that an uprising will occur in the immediate future but has no details and knows of no specific date. He informed that the white rose in Cuba has instructions to support any anti-Castro uprising at any time and will govern itself accordingly if an uprising should occur. b7C

[REDACTED] stated that white rose sources in the vicinity of Guantanamo Naval Base, Cuba, advised him that rumors are circulating in that area to the effect that Castro adherents are contemplating some provocation at Guantanamo in hope of embarrassing the United States. The sources were unable to furnish [REDACTED] with any of the details but told him that the rumors indicated that the provocation would occur within the next ten days if the circumstances were favorable. b7C

[REDACTED] sources informed him that Castro adherents are presently attempting to develop an anti-United States atmosphere in the vicinity of the Guantanamo Naval Base. According to [REDACTED] sources, it was expected that if a favorable atmosphere for the provocation could not be developed within the next ten days, that the plan for such a provocation in that area would be abandoned. Upon [redacted] return to New York, you should have two agents contact her and tell her that the information she has furnished us has not always checked out. The data in retels is an excellent example of this. [redacted] has admittedly given us speculation and rumor and has often refused to divulge her sources. [redacted] should be told in such a manner that she will clearly understand that the Bureau cannot and will not act as a pipeline for such data and that while we are ready to accept factual data, we must insist that she reveal her sources in each instance in order that we can contact such sources directly.

The interview with [redacted] if properly handled, should discourage her from giving us data which is not factual. It is recognized that this interview may also result in her not giving us any data at all. Under the circumstances, this would be no great loss to the Bureau.

Reairtel reported information from [REDACTED] to the effect that his wife, [REDACTED] stated she was remaining in Miami until [REDACTED] of the Department of State returned from Augusta, Georgia. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] had met with a group in Palm Beach.

This matter was discussed with [REDACTED] special assistant [REDACTED] on 11/20/59. As far as he knew, [REDACTED] never went to Augusta, Georgia, on his recent vacation nor did [REDACTED] go to Palm Beach. [REDACTED] did, however, make a speech on 11/5/59 in Miami at the request of the White House before the Conference of National Organizations, a group of U.S. industrialists. [REDACTED] stated it is his opinion [REDACTED] story was wholly [REDACTED] of New York City who has been volunteering considerable information regarding the Cuban situation has written a letter to the New York Office (NYO) from Miami in which she set forth various allegations concerning plans of anti-Castro movement. Among other things, [REDACTED] alleged that anti-Castro underground in Cuba planned to kill [REDACTED] and also planned to bomb the U. S. Embassy in Havana. [REDACTED] further claimed to have information regarding proposed attack on Cuba by anti-Castro movement under leadership of British officer who had been paid $250,000 to take part. We have disseminated this information to State, [REDACTED] Department, and military agencies, as well as to U. S. Embassy in Havana by way of our Legat there. We have also advised the British through our Legat, London, and in each case we have attributed information directly to [REDACTED] who is well known to other intelligence agencies.

New York airtel 11/17/59 sets forth the following additional information concerning this matter: On 11/17/59 [REDACTED] advised NYO his wife had called him from Miami and said she would remain there until [REDACTED] of U. S. State Department returned from Augusta, Georgia. [REDACTED] said that [REDACTED] had met with anti-Castro group in Palm Beach, Florida, 11/10/59. [REDACTED] further indicated that [REDACTED] would again talk with anti-Castro leaders on his return to Miami.

On 11/18/59 [REDACTED] in the office of [REDACTED] advised SA [REDACTED] via liaison as follows: [REDACTED] is now on an extended vacation prior to his scheduled retirement from State Department next month. On 11/6/59 he traveled to Bahama Islands and returned to Washington, D. C., 11/15/59 after spending several days in Florida on his way back. [REDACTED] has not recently been in Augusta, Georgia, to [REDACTED] knowledge. His presence in Washington at this time is generally not known and [REDACTED] furnished this information on a confidential basis.

Re: Cuban Propaganda Activities in the United States

On November 12, 1959, [redacted] United States Customs Agent, New York City, advised that a shipment of approximately 600 pamphlets had arrived at Idlewild Airport via British Overseas Airways on airway bill 136/72100 consigned to [redacted] Cubana Airlines for delivery to the Cuban Consul General, New York City. [redacted] said the pamphlets accuse United States of permitting planes to bomb Havana from bases within United States. The pamphlets would not be seized by Customs, [redacted] said, unless instructed to do so by the United States Department of State. b7C

On November 10, 1959, [redacted] learned that [redacted] in New York City, [redacted] had been advised [redacted] Press Section of the Cuban Department of State in Havana, that a [redacted] would deliver 1,000 copies of a controversial pamphlet from Havana to New York City on November 11, 1959, via Cubana Airlines flight number 998 which departs Havana at 9:00 A.M. and arrives in New York City at 1:00 P.M. According to the informant, [redacted] advised [redacted] that the pamphlets concerned the recent airplane bombing of Havana and should be distributed immediately to all communication and press media. [redacted] also instructed [redacted] to contact [redacted] at Cubana Airlines Office in New York City on November 11, 1959, and obtain the pamphlets. b2 b7C

On November 12, 1959, [redacted] informed that he had learned a shipment of pamphlets arrived in New York City on November 11, 1959, from Cuba and another shipment was still expected on November 15 or 16, 1959. According to [redacted] these propaganda leaflets were being shipped to United States at the direction of the Cuban Government of Fidel Castro, Prime Minister, and contained accusations against. b2/b7D the United States Government similar to the accusations made by the Cuban Government which recently provoked a note being sent by the United States Department of State to the Cuban Government.

On November 12, 1959, [REDACTED] Special Agent in Charge, United States Department of State, New York City, advised he had received instructions from the State Department in Washington, D. C. not to interfere with the above-mentioned shipment of pamphlets and, consequently, it was expected that the leaflets would be delivered as consigned. b7C

On November 13, 1959, [REDACTED] of Customs at Idlewild Airport, New York, advised that the shipment of pamphlets, described above by Customs Agent [REDACTED] had not arrived via British Overseas Airways Corporation (BOAC) but was stored, awaiting disposition, in a BOAC cargo shed because Cubana Airlines shares cargo space with BOAC. Burton said the pamphlets had actually arrived on Cubana Airlines plane number 668, flight number 998 on November 11, 1959. He said the shipment consisted of three packages consigned under Cubana airway bill number 136-72100 to [REDACTED] of Cubana Aviation, New York. According to [REDACTED] the shipper was listed as Minister of State, Department of Public Relations, Havana, Cuba. b7C

[REDACTED] stated that above-described shipment was cleared by Customs in the afternoon of November 11, 1959, under informal entry number 85385. He said the shipment was valued at $18 and $3.15 in duty was charged. [REDACTED] informed that the shipment was turned over to [REDACTED] who is in charge of all Cubana cargo, for ultimate disposition to the Cuban Consulate in New York City. b7C

On November 13, 1959, [REDACTED] informed that on that date [REDACTED] was contacted by an unidentified male in New York City who congratulated [REDACTED] on his recent change in assignment from [REDACTED] in New York City to [REDACTED]. According to [REDACTED] b2 b7C

Re: Cuban Propaganda Activities in the United States

asked the unidentified man for his mailing list of Chambers of Commerce, and the unidentified man said he would be able to furnish [REDACTED] with his list which consisted of about 200 Chambers of Commerce. [REDACTED] told the man he wanted the list in order to mail pamphlets which referred to the recent bombing of Cuba by plane. [REDACTED] told the man the pamphlets do not accuse the United States but place the blame for the bombing on Batistianos (Cuban exiles formerly affiliated with the deposed Cuban Dictator Fulgencio Batista) now in the United States. [REDACTED] said the pamphlet was published by the Department of State in Cuba, and is the same as an item recently published in "The New York Times." b7C

According to [REDACTED] the unidentified man refuted [REDACTED] statement on the bombing of Cuba and told [REDACTED] he had American friends who were in Havana in a tall building during the alleged plane attack. The man advised [REDACTED] that his friends observed the plane pass overhead three times and did not see any bombs drop or any ammunition fired from the plane. The unidentified man said his friends told him that the shooting was all one way and was done by Marines who were on the docks firing at the plane. b2 b7C

On 11/17/59, New York Office (NYO) received letter from Miami from [REDACTED], who has volunteered considerable information concerning Cuban situation, in which she set forth various allegations concerning plans of anti-Castro movement. Among other things, she alleged anti-Castro underground planned to kill [REDACTED] our [REDACTED] and planned to bomb our Embassy there. She further claimed to have information concerning proposed attack on Cuba, scheduled for about 11/15/59, by anti-Castro movement, under leadership of British officer, from San Salvador Island in Bahamas. We disseminated this information to State, [REDACTED] Department and military agencies as well as to our Embassy in Havana via our Legal Attache there. [REDACTED] In each case we attributed information directly to [REDACTED]

On 11/19/59 Miami Office interviewed anti-Castro leader who according to [redacted] had received the data dealing with plan to kill [redacted] and blow up Embassy. This individual stated he had received no such data. On interview 11/19/59 in Miami, [redacted] admitted she knew of no specific plot to kill [redacted] or bomb Embassy and said this was speculation on her part. Concerning plan to attack Cuba from San Salvador island, [redacted] claimed she overheard persons she would not identify state Las Vegas gamblers would purchase the island from British and make it available to Cuban exiles as base of operations. The above-mentioned anti-Castro leader also advised us he had negotiated earlier this year with British in Bahamas for permission to use Andros Island as base but no agreement was reached. In summary, [redacted] data, upon checking, was found to be erroneous and the data she furnished us in her 11/17/59 letter disagreed with the data she gave us on interview on 11/19/59.

REC- 74 107-12 212-78

We have for some time noted an increasing proclivity by [redacted] to give us personal speculation and rumor which are not labelled as such and which she expects us to believe. We have also observed that she has become increasingly imbued with a "spy" complex and appears to be an individual who revels in intrigue and association with intelligence agencies. We know she has been in contact with other agencies and has made numerous trips to Cuba to contact anti-Castro leaders. [redacted] motivation in furnishing data to U. S. intelligence agencies has not been entirely clear. She claims to be concerned with threat of communism, but there have been indications she has business interests in Cuba which are threatened by Castro regime. [redacted] is not a confidential source or informant under our control. We have recognized from the outset that much of her data is not subject to verification and in disseminating data made available by her, we have been attributing it to her directly, describing her as a person who has volunteered information concerning Cuban matters. Other agencies are well acquainted with her background and activities. Recent data, such as the information concerning [redacted] and proposed attack on Cuba from San Salvador island, definitely points to probability that [redacted] is an intelligence fabricator who is trying to use Bureau as pipeline to get her own viewpoints across concerning the Cuban situation. We should not permit this and it is believed that the time has come for us to take a firm position with her.

RECOMMENDATIONS:

- 1) That attached letter be sent Department and attached letter be sent State with copies to [redacted] and military agencies. Attention is called to fact data developed 11/19/59 at variance with data previously furnished [redacted]. Since [redacted] indicated she had checked with State and Department concerning her obligation to register as foreign agent and was told she did not have to register, we are asking State and Department if [redacted] checked with them as indicated.
- 2) That attached cables be sent Legat, Havana, and Legat, London, furnishing the additional pertinent data developed and instructing Havana to give it to our Embassy and [redacted].
- 3) That attached letter be sent NYO instructing [redacted] be told data she has furnished has not always checked out. [redacted] will be told Bureau will not act as pipeline for such data and that, while we are ready to accept factual data, we must insist on her revealing her sources in order that we can contact such sources directly.
